investors had been treated as they had been by the Canadian Government. Various acts of Parliament were passed in order to obtain the money for the railway in London, and they had heard from Mr. Provand how the terms of the subsidy were altered in order to secure the necessary capital. There was no promotion of any kind in this country in reference to the Chignecto Ship Railway. It came to them entirely promoted by the Canadian Government and the Canadian people. The case was one of the most painful that investors in London had ever experienced. They had all heard statements from Canadians that the people of this country did not in-how was it possible that English peo-ple could be expected to invest their money in a country when, in an enter-prise promoted by the Canadian Gov-

It was quite certain no inves-tor who heard of the way in which the bondholders and shareholders of the Chignetto Ship Rallway had been wested, would invest in any Canadian business in the future until they had beenfairly dealt with. Up to the pre-sent time very little had been said in

The company failed to carry out its part of the bargain, and therefore, it is difficult to see what abligation rests on Canada to grant an extension of time.

All Europe Agitated Over the Egyptian Affair.

French Papers Speak Out Angelly-German Newspapers Indicate That the Fatherland is in Sympathy With Great Britain in the Matter-A General Warming Up in Political Circles in England-

Comments of New York Correspondents. London, Feb. 6.-(Special Cable Letter.)-The mischievous and dangerous language of menace and defiance towards France court, the responsible leader of the Opposi-tion, characterized Sir Michael Hicks-Beach's remarkable outburst in the House of Commons last night in the Egyptian de-bate. The outburst throws a fresh firebrand upon the flames of European jealousies, and makes a concentrated effort to coerce the Sultan ten times more difficult. France, supported by Russia, he suggested in so many words, had influenced the mixed Court of Appeal to deny . Egypt the power to repay the cost of the Dongoja expedition out of the reserve fund, but England was not to be warried out of her policy by such hindrances and difficulties." Next year, when the revision of the mixed tribunals falls due, it will be a grave queetion whether the tribunals shall be allowed thus to usurp authority.

"We are," he added, amid great Tory cheering, "In occupation of Egypt. Our payment for the expedition is rather calculated to protong tana shorten our occupation. This season our troops will move forward from Dongola to Abu-Hamed, at lerwards possibly beyond; how far i do no think it right; to say, Meanwhile, a railroad will be run from Waddy Halfa to Abu-Hamed." He ended by moving a resolution granting the sum of £798,000 to meet the total cost of the Anglo-Exyptian expedition to Dongola, including the maintenance of the garrisons at Suskim and elsewhere in the Sondan, and the Indian troops in Egypt, which tireat Britain would may. This was adopted by a vote office to 15.

Mr. George Curzon, speaking later, added the startling assertion that Italy first proposed the Dongola expedition. Much must be allowed for a Chancellor of the Exchequer who is forced to pay haif a milion sterling in the face of his own piedge that the expedition would not cost the British taxpayer one farthing. Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, moreover, is suffering from bronchial catarrah, which may explain the aggressive manner of a Minister who always has been regarded as a strong element of moderation and common sense in the Cabinet.

Apart from the Egyptian debate this has been a stormy week in English politics. The Ministry secured the first reading of the new Church Schools' Relief Bill by closure, and the party whip, have not hidden their resentment at the whole method and policy of the measure. The church party say that the state grant of five shillings per child is quite inadequate to enable the church schools to keep pace with the raicalded board schools. Expecially they reseat the fact that the $2,300,000 which the bill grants will not be received during the current manacial year, the Chancellor of the Exchequer having, as Sir Charles Dilke said, sunk in the sands of the Soudan, the Britain Believed to Mave the Support of the Fatherland.

Berlin, Feb. 6.-Official and newspaper opinions in Germany regarding the renewed strain between France and England with complete equanimity and the declarations neerning Egypt made by Sir Michael Hicks Beach, the British Chancellor of the Exchequer in the House of Commons in London yesterday, are attributed to that gentleman's knowledge that England has the support of Germany, Austria and Italy in regard to her occupation of Egypt.

The Hamburg correspondent in an article on the subject gives expression to the opinion generally entertained in Berlin, when it says that France has no legal right to force England to evacuate Egypt, even it all the great powers should back her up. But, the papers adds, the powers will do nothing of the kind, for the reason that they have no interest in England's welfare, and even Russia, though for reasons or policy, she has joined France in an entente, will go no further than she has alrendy gone. The effect will likely be, the paper adds, "to defeat a solution of the difficulties in Turkey and we must now exert every effort to restore the harmony between France and Great Britain."

The 'Adhesion of Germany and England to a common policy in regard to Egypt, it had been beyed, would lead to an ahatement of aggression in the Transvaal, but advices received here announce the occurrence of a serious split between Dr. Leyds, the Secretary of State of the South African Republic, and President Krüger, which advices furnish an explanation for the reported intention of Dr. Leyds to resign his office. Dr. Leyds has a large number of followers, and according to the despatches the prediction is freely made that he will obtain a Boer majority fin favor of the Angio Roer convention, which will give the Transvaal Government absolute control tweelth.
