Greece Has No Money

Some of Her Soldiers Mutinied and Went Home Against Order.

By Special Wire to the Courier.
New York, March 28.—A special cable to The World from Messina, Sicily, says:
The treasury of Greece is absolutely empty. Athens merchants are refusing government orders without cash. Half the automobiles lack tires. One regiment at Kavala and another at Saloniki mutinied and returned home against orders. The ministry is crumbling.
Zaimis probably will be the next premier, but Venizelos is expected to follow him. Venizelos alone is preventing a revolution. If Venizelos becomes premier, Greece will enter the war. The dynasty is in danger in any event. Venizelos is determined to teach Constantine a lesson. Greece again is coming under Venizelos' power.

Amundsen, who reached the South Pole, says there is an abundance of game in the Antarctic on which the Shackleton party can subsist, but a relief expedition may be organized at Sydney, Australia, without delay.
Four Italians and two Russians were burned to death, and an Italian woman and a Russian badly injured in a fire in an Armenian lodging house at Halifax during Saturday night. Sixty persons were in the house.

Presentation to 125th Batt. Man
Mr. Frank Perry of the Brants Remembered by His Friends.

On Saturday evening a pleasant surprise was held at the home of Mr. Perry, 125th Battalion man, in honor of their son, Mr. Frank Perry, who was certainly taken by surprise, made a very feeling and suitable reply thanking his friends for their kind remembrance of him.

Following is the address:
Dear Frank,—To-night when many of your friends and relatives are gathered together, we take this opportunity of expressing the high esteem and deep affection you are held in by us.
As a tangible expression of that feeling, we ask you to accept this wrist watch.
We trust it will always remind you of the many friends you have made and left behind in Brantford, who will be ever hoping and praying for your safe and speedy return.

The British Admiralty says the Dutch liner Tubantia was destroyed by a bronze torpedo.
A German deserter from Friedrichshafen says it takes three or four weeks to build a Zeppelin.

Stave Island, about five miles east of Gananogue, in the St. Lawrence River, owned by Foster Chaffee, of Montreal, has been accepted by the Militia Department for a rest retreat and summer home for convalescent soldiers.

The Arnold family of Kent County establishes a record for longevity. The eight surviving brothers and sisters of the late Lawrence Arnold, Harwich Township, are all over 70 years of age, and their combined ages total 640 years.
