NOTICE.
When a newspaper offers its advertising space at a nominal figure, it is a practical admission of "no circulation." THE KLONDIKE NUGGET asks a good figure for its space and its justification thereof guarantees to its advertisers a paid circulation five times that of any other paper published between Juneau and the North Pole.

MEETING SHOULD BE CALLED.

From the general tenor of the interviews published in the Nugget yesterday in connection with the proposal of the Klondike Mines Railway Co. to establish their depot and terminals at Klondike City, it is quite apparent that the business interests of Dawson are fully alive to the importance of the question. The suggestion that a meeting should be called for the purpose of discussing the situation is an excellent one and we trust it will be carried into effect immediately.

As a preliminary toward the accomplishment of actual results in the matter of making this city the terminus of the road full and complete information as to the company's intentions is the first and most important requisite.

If the expense involved in constructing a bridge, or the lack of suitable terminal site stands in the way of the owners of the road, the facts should be elicited, in order that some definite and intelligible plan may be brought forward by which the difficulty may be overcome.

There seems to be perfect unity among all business men of the community upon the one point that the railroad should enter Dawson direct. Extension of the line to this city by means of a street railway will prove, in the opinion of this paper, entirely unsatisfactory. Dawson is the headquarters for all business in the territory and possesses every advantage which should be required in a railroad terminal point. The commercial interests of the community demand that immediate steps be taken to insure the extension of the road to this city.

We feel perfectly satisfied that an organized effort on the part of local business men will result in some tangible solution of the difficulty.

Reports from the Nome district indicate that the camp by the beach is recovering from its boom day experiences and has settled down to an era of steady work and development. Speculative valuations have disappeared just as has been the case with Dawson, and Nome is firmly established upon a business basis. Titles are now secure and perfect law and order exist where two and three years ago there was little or no regard for either. There are valuable mining properties located in the vicinity of Nome, beyond and question or doubt, and the only reason that their development has been hindered lies in the endless amount of litigation that has been in progress. The scandals attending the Noyes regime have pretty well blown over and the wrongs done at that time have been righted as nearly as possible. There is nothing now to stand in the way of Nome's progress, and good reports may hereafter be anticipated.

The passing to the old gold commissioner's office removes a landmark which has played an important part in the history of Dawson and the Klondike. The sins laid up against that old building are so many and varied that the wonder is it did not fall to pieces long ago of its own volition. If it were only given to dumb logs to speak.

Dawson is rapidly becoming a city of handsome residences and business blocks. The amount of building in progress and contemplated speaks more for the solidity and permanence of the town than could be written in columns of space.

If the imperial government should undertake to make good all the losses involved in the postponement of the coronation the bill would take a nice round chunk out of the yearly appropriations.

Old Glory Upside Down

London, June 14.—Lady Newborough, who before her marriage was Miss Grace Bruce Carr, is an American still in sentiment. The other day, when everybody was hanging out hunting in honor of the peace news, she got out an American flag with her own hands and flung it to the breeze from a window at her house in Green street. Unfortunately her ladyship did not notice that she had hung the flag upside down. It hung in that position until another American woman passed that way. She noticed the flag and, becoming indignant, went to the nearest telephone. She rang up Lady Newborough's house. The butler said Lady Newborough was not at home.

"What is the trouble in the house?" she inquired.

"Beg pardon, ma'am, what did you say?" came the answer.

"Why, you have got the American flag upside down. That means distress," she explained to the astonished butler.

"Thank you, ma'am," he said, finally, "and what name shall I give her ladyship?"

"Just tell her I am an American woman and a friend."

When the lady passed down the street a few minutes later the flag had been righted.

In Sitka Schools

New York, June 18.—Basket weaving is to be introduced into the curriculum of the school for industrial training supported by the Presbyterian board, in Sitka, Alaska. Sewing, dressmaking, cooking and domestic science already are well established branches of the school. Boys learn the trades of boat building, shoemaking, carpentry, etc.

In addressing the Women's Board of Presbyterian Home Missions, now in session here, Dr. B. K. Wilbur, of Sitka, Alaska, contrasted the condition of the native Alaskians of Sitka when the United States government bought the territory ten years before missionary work began there and the present advancement of the people.

He described the new Covenant Legion, a society of Alaskans, who are pledged to marry according to Christian principles, and to give up all feasts for the dead. The organization has eighty members, many of whom were graduated from the Sitka school. Eighteen model houses were built in Sitka, by the graduates, and are occupied by them and their families.

Miss Dora Fisk, a missionary among the mountaineers of North Carolina, also addressed the meeting.

Many Articles Reach Bottom Prices

Hay Selling at Less Than Cost—Eggs May be Had at Any Price.

Nearly everything in the line of eatables and provisions in Dawson have cheapened within the past week, perishables having gone to rock bottom prices. Cream is selling at from $8.50 to $9.50, per case and new hams are selling at 25 cents per pound. Onions have dropped to 13 cents and lemons are slow at $12.50 per case. Oats can be had at 5 cents per pound and as they sell at $14 per ton on the outside money is lost in importing them at the present price.

Fine new potatoes from California sell at 10 cents per pound while old ones are quoted at 7 cents. The granulated sugar famine has been relieved and the best quotations on that article is 8 1/2 cents wholesale or 10 cents retail.

Fresh strawberries, usually in bad shape, command 60 cents per quart box; cherries, $4.50 per case; apricots, $4.50; peaches, $5; fresh tomatoes, 50 to 75 cents per pound, and fresh apples $10 per box.

Bananas are being retailed at 4 for 50 cents where three weeks ago they brought from $6 to $8 per dozen.

Beef, wholesale, is quoted at 22 1/2 and 25 cents per pound, while pork has dropped from 30 to 28 cents.

Eggs are not in it at living prices, as they are selling as low as $12.50 per case and in some instances much lower.

Fresh fish are abundant at prices within reach of all.

TELEPHONE EXPANSION

Captain Olson Making Improvements

Direct Line to be Established to Mouth of Gold Run Via Hunker.

Captain Olson, manager of the telephone company, returned last night from an inspection and establishment of the route of the new trunk telephone line for the creeks. This will run from Dawson right up the Klondike to Hunker, up Hunker to the divide and on to Dominion and down to the mouth and to Gold Run. It will be a new line throughout and all of copper wire.

Fifty new instruments are expected to arrive any day to add to those already in service. They are of the Bell pattern and what Captain Olson believes to be the best instrument now in use. The new trunk line will accommodate four times the present patronage on the creeks and as the number of patrons increase Captain Olson hopes to be able to reduce the tolls charged in a ratio with the additional number of subscribers.

During the summer, too, the extension of the local system would be pushed. A new 100 drop switchboard would be put in, which would increase the capacity to 500. By next winter he hoped that not only every business firm of consequence would be connected with the system—for that was practically the case now—but every residence also would be on the list of subscribers.

Imperialism Denounced

Bangor, Me., June 17.—The Democratic state convention today nominated W. S. Gould of Skowhegan, for governor and adopted a platform which, in discussing national questions, says:

"We deplore the policy which has created occasion for acts of cruelty and barbarism in the Philippines which no party dares uphold."

"We denounce the policy of imperialism as practiced by Spain in Cuba, by the British government in America before the revolution, by Great Britain in South Africa and by the Republican administration in the Philippines. We believe that the liberation of Cuba was forced by the Democratic party, and that the same liberty should be granted the Philippines."
