An excellent remedy for Reheums tism, Lame Back, Etc., Etc. Read the following testimonial from a man you all know:

Mr. W. A. Singleton, Crosby, Ont.

Orespy, Ont.

Dear Sir,—Being laid up with lame back, I thought I would drop you a line to tell you that your St. Legis Lumbago cure will do all you cisim for it, as I have only used part of the bottle and I feel no returning symptoms of the Alacasa.

I may say I have been troubled with lame back for the last ten years, and tried several other patent medicines but without results.

I can heartily recommend it to any troubled with lame back, and I feel safe in saying that t's the cheapest medicine on the market.

Yours Truly, JAMES McCUE

Regarding your Zutoo Tablets I beg to say: I have been a sufferer from head-ache since childhood and have used all, or nearly all, of the so-called "cures" on the market, till warned by my physician to discontinue their use on account of their bad effects on the heart. Some mouths since my attestion was called to their bad effects on the heart. Some months since my attention was called to your Zutoo Tablets and I have been using them ever since with the most gratifying results. I find they cure a "sick" or "nervous" headache in a few minutes and leave no bad effect. My family use them whenever needed with equally good results. I have frequently given them to friends who were suffering from headache and they never fail to give quick relief. I find them a good remedy for "sour" stomach as well asheadache. I always carry them in my grip on the road ways carry them in my grip on the road and would not be without them at any cost.

A REMINISCENCE

Twenty-five years ago Mr. James Hanna elipped the following from the Charleston Lake news of the Brock-ville Recorder, and through his favor we are permitted to publish it. The poem is a "prediction" by "Captain Lawson,"

First the far-famed doctor Shall visit our pleasant lake, And talk of evolution

Just for talk's own sake. Till the Rev. Mr. Brown, The Gospel to defend, Shall preach a convincing sermon,
And thus all doubting end.

Reid B. Alguire, too, Shall seek his favorite isle, And his ever-joyous face Shall wear a happier smile, While for his trusty neighbor (We expect to see him back)

May he have none other Than the jolly C. C. Slack. Then Bluff Island Palace

Shall have visitors from afar, And Ad. will be their Captain, While Case shall act as Czar. The King shall spread a banquet, And choicest dainties bring; Dr. Koyl will come to feast,

And Herb will come to sing. I heard a little Lamb Bleating from the shore, Saying: "Oh, ye sick, Why suffer any more ?

Try my lubricating For all your outward ills ; Should it fail to cure, Just use my mandrake pills."

SOPERTON

Quite a large number from here ttended the show in Brockville on Saturday.

Mrs R. Johnson has recovered sufficiently from her illness to be able to dispense with the services of her Miss Moray, who returned to ner home in Algonquin on Friday last.

We are pleased to note that Mr C. Frye is recovering from his recent severe illness. Rev Mr Pomroy, the young minister on this circuit, preached in the Methodist church here for the first time on Sunday afternoon. He bids fair to be well liked by the people. Miss Eva Justus, who has been staying with her aunt, Mrs T. J. Frye and attending school here for the past two months, has returned to her home in Winchester. She was accompanied by her grandmother, Mrs A.

McConkey. Quite a crowd gathered on the factory lawn on Saturday evening and were entertained by Mr Watts with several gramophone selections.

At the June 25th meeting of the Epworth League, the members enjoyed social evening in honor of Mr V. Gilbert, their literary president, who leaves for the West in a short time to take up the work of a minister. The topic, "Moses," was ably dealt with by Miss Pearl Irwin, after which a vocal trio was satifactorily rendered by Miss Susie Preston and the Misses M. and Z. Frve. A reading suitable to the topic was given by Miss Blanche Singleton.

The following address was read by Miss Maysie Frye and a volume of Tennyson's poems, together with a silver book mark and paper knife com-bined presented by Miss Mabel Irwin.

To Mr V. Gilbert. It affords me intense represent a committee, who in turn represent your friends, and in their behalf to present you with this book as a very slight token of our appreciation of your help in our League and the good work you have done among us. Your integrity and zeal have not only won the esteem and confidence of your friends but of others, so that now when you are leaving us, you go to take up a work that is not only a credit to yourself but also a help to the country at large.

The gift we offer you is of no intrinsic value, but it is rich in friendship, gratitude and respect. Please accept it and with it the united hopes that your life may be ever happy, and that some day, and that some day we shall meet where there shall be no

Signed in behalf of League. Mr Gilbert replied in a suitable speech, after which ice cream and cake were served. The meeting closed about 10.30 by singing the hymn, "God be with you till we meet again."

"What," asked the sweet girl, "was the happiest moment of your life?" "The happiest moment of my life," answered the old backelor, "was when the jeweler took back an engagement ring and gave me sleeve links in ex-

PIE BIRDS OF BRITTANY.

They Must Be Pretty Strong, Acing to This Breton Story. "Speaking of exaggerations," said a story of the Breton farmer. "There was a farmer in Brittany who wished to tell a visitor how his farm had been overrun with pies. Pies, you know, are large birds, black and white, with long tails—a kind of crow.

The farmer said the pies devastated his fields horribly. If he put up scare crows, the birds tore them down. One day his young son ran into the granite farmhouse and shouted:

" 'Oh, father, hundreds and hundr of birds! The wheat is being all eaten checkerboard, with pies. The farmer gave a loud yell, and the birds all flew up into a tell popler. He fired, and, lo, every bird was nadled fast to the tree. They were nailed fast. Their fispping wings filled the sir with a loud wide. The farmes, amased, stood watching them. Then a strange thing happened. The birds, with one grand united effort, pulled up the huge tree and flew away with it."

It's an infernal nuisance to be handing out tips every few minutes, or, at least, when I want anything done. Now, I purpose to lump the whole thing in weekly payments. I expect to be here at least three weeks.
