

Poetry.

THE EXPATRIATED.

BY WILLIAM MOTTERWELL.

No bird is singing in cloud or tree, No eye is beaming, Glad welcome to me; The forest is uncles; Its brown leaves fall— Changed and withered, they fleet Like hollow friends all.

OH! WHAT A WORLD IT MIGHT BE!

Oh! what a world it might be, If hearts were always kind; If friendship, love would light thee, And fortune prove less blind!

RELATION BETWEEN THE ATMOSPHERE AND THE MIND.

As the mind,—"I thought as much," said Wieland one day to me, as he entered his library with a look of vexation. "I have just been looking at the barometer which rises a single line. Still at twenty-seven inches! I cannot get on at all with my work!" I looked at him with a smile of surprise. "Yes, yes," he continued, "the state of the barometer has more influence on the mind than you seem to imagine."

THE SPANIARDS HAVE A WISE SAYING.

"The Spaniards have a wise saying—'At eighteen marry your daughter to her superior; at twenty to her equal; at thirty to any one that will have her.'"

STATE OF MATRIMONY.

"STATE OF MATRIMONY.—'Ma' said a young lady, 'whereabouts shall I find the state of matrimony?' 'Oh,' replied the mother, 'you will find it one of the United States.'"

JOHN J. E. LINTON, NOTARY PUBLIC, Commissioner, Queen's Bench, AND CONVEYANCER, STRATFORD.

THE MONTREAL TRANSCRIPT AND COMMERCIAL ADVERTISER.

IS Published every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, at the Low Price of TWELVE SHILLINGS per annum, payable invariably in advance.

The Transcript is printed on a sheet nearly as large as any used in the Province; transcript circumstances permit, it will be still further enlarged in the course of the ensuing summer.

During the approaching Session of Parliament the Transcript will contain Reports of the Proceedings, sufficiently comprehensive to furnish Record of all that occur in both Legislative Bodies.

As a Family Newspaper, the Transcript will support its old character. A portion of its spare space will be devoted to the insertion of miscellaneous matter of an interesting and literary character, thus everything offensive to morals will be carefully avoided.

We have commenced, and intend to continue, a series of Biographical Sketches from Chambers' Miscellany of Useful and Entertaining Tracts and other Works; and during the present session, notice will be taken of the Lectures delivered at the several Literary Institutions of this city, which we commenced last winter, and which gave general satisfaction.

TERMS OF THE TRANSCRIPT BY MAIL.

The price of Subscription of the MONTREAL TRANSCRIPT, (when sent by mail) is TWELVE SHILLINGS per annum, payable in advance. To facilitate remittances FIFTEEN SHILLINGS will be taken for Fifteen Months. TEN SHILLINGS for Ten Months, and FIVE SHILLINGS for Five Months. When the period of subscription is nearly expired, we shall send three different copies of the Transcript enclosed in blue or green covers; and if no remittance is made, the Paper shall, in every case, be discontinued. As the paper is given to subscribers at the lowest possible price, all money letters must be post-paid; and those which are not, the postage will be deducted from the money sent.

The Transcript is sent to Subscribers in the country twice or three times a week, at their option. The whole of the reading matter of Thursday and Saturday's papers being put into one sheet—thus saving the Subscribers one-third postage, the price of subscription to the both is the same. Subscribers, in writing for the Transcript, will please mention whether they wish the weekly or semi-weekly paper sent to them.

Newspapers with whom we exchange will please copy this Notice, which we will be happy to reciprocate in the same way. Goderich, March 3, 1848. 5

FOREIGN PERIODICALS.

RE-PUBLICATION OF THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW, EDINBURGH REVIEW, FOREIGN QUARTERLY REVIEW, WESTMINSTER REVIEW, and BLACKWOOD'S EDING' MAGAZINE.

The above Periodicals are reprinted in the Edinburgh edition. The London Quarterly Review, immediately on their arrival by the British Steamers, in a beautiful clear type, on fine white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals—Blackwood's Magazine being an exact fac-simile of the Edinburgh edition.

The wide-spread fame of these splendid Periodicals renders it needless to say much in their praise. As literary organs, they stand far in advance of any works of the similar stamp now published, while the political complexion of each is marked by a dignity, candour, and forbearance not often found in works of a party character.

They embrace the views of the three great parties in England—Whig, Tory, and Radical—Blackwood and the London Quarterly Review, the Edinburgh Review, Whig; and the Westminster, Radical. The Foreign Quarterly is purely literary, being devoted principally to criticisms on foreign Continental Works.

The price of the Re-prints are less than one-third of those of the foreign copies, and while they are equally well got up, they afford all that advantage to the American or the English reader.

TERMS.

PAYMENT TO BE MADE IN ADVANCE. For any one of the four Reviews, $3.00 per an. For any two do do do 5.00 " For any three do do do 7.00 " For any four do do do 9.00 " For Blackwood's Magazine... 3.00 " For Blackwood and the 4 Reviews, 10.00 "

CLUBBING.

Four copies of any or all of the above works will be sent to one address on payment of the regular subscription for three-fourth copy being gratis.

Remittances and communications must be made in all cases without expense to the publishers. The former may always be done through a Postmaster, by handing him the amount to be remitted, taking his receipt and forwarding it by mail, post-paid; or the money may be enclosed in a letter, post-paid, directed to the publishers.

N.B.—The postage on these Periodicals is reduced by the late Post Office Law to about one-third the former rates, making a very important saving in the expense to mail subscribers.

In all the principal cities and towns throughout the United States to which there is a direct Railroad or Water communication from the City of New York, these periodicals will be delivered free of postage.
