EDMONTON NEWS

LOCAL

The city commissioners are calling for tenders for the construction of a bridge over Rat Creek.

A few days ago G. Link, of Fraser avenue, lost a wallet containing $28 in one of the street cars. It was found and returned by Conductor John York.

A party of surveyors employed by Messrs. Driscoll & Knight, are engaged in sub-dividing the two blocks of the Hudson's Bay reserve which have been secured as a site for the Collegiate institute.

Chas. May, of the May-Sharp Construction Co. left Friday night for Winnipeg, where he will submit tenders for the concrete pillars for the G. T. P. bridges at Wolf Creek and the Macleod River.

Inspector Tucker, who is to succeed Capt. McDowell at Fort Saskatchewan, in charge of the R.N.W.M.P. patrol from the fifth meridian near Stony Plain west to the mountains, left for Entwine Wednesday afternoon.

The body of the unknown Chinaman found near the Namayo trail, six miles out on Tuesday last, still lies unidentified at Connelly & McKinley's undertaking rooms. It has been viewed by a large number of Edmonton Chinamen, but has not been recognized definitely by any of them.

The marriage was solemnized at the Cathedral at St. Albert on August 2, by Rev. Father Merrer, O.M.I., of Wm. A. P. Ternan, M.D., eldest son of the late John Ternan, Fleet surgeon, Royal navy, of Halifax, N.S., the bride, eldest daughter of the late John B. A. Farrell, of St. Albert.

J. D. Robertson of Ottawa, representing the syndicate who have made a small fortune out of La Rose mine at Cobalt, left for the east last evening after spending a few days in the Edmonton district. Mr. Robertson has located several thousand acres of half-bred scrip in Saskatchewan, and as a result of his investigations in this province will make some big investments in Alberta properties.

John R. Boyle, M.P.P. for Sturgeon, returned to the city this morning from a short trip into his constituency. Mr. Boyle says the crops north of the Sturgeon River are in splendid condition; those south are very heavy, but not quite so far advanced as the crops across the river. Generally speaking, however, the Sturgeon district should harvest more than an average crop this year.

BACK FROM SEATTLE

James Harper, manager of the Harper Coal Company, returned yesterday from a two weeks' trip to the Seattle exposition. In speaking with the attendance at the Coast fair is not up to expectations but it is expected that it will be larger before the closing of the exposition. He was particularly impressed with the Canadian building which was highly praised by all who saw it. He would like to have seen the Alberta exhibit more prominently displayed.

AT IMMIGRATION HALL

Figures for the month of July as contained in the report of W. J. Webster, immigration agent of the Dominion government at Edmonton, show a total of 85 immigrants received during the month.

Of these 32 came via ocean travel, 28 arrived from the United States and 4 were from points in Canada. The nationalities represented were as follows: English 21, Irish 1, Scotch 3, Germans 24, Scandinavians 6, French 7, United States citizens 12, Canadians 2, other nationalities 3.

All were of a good class of settler, the majority being homesteaders. Some had quite a little money. One man bought $1,500 worth of property in the neighborhood of his packing plant.

VALUABLE HORSE DIES

A valuable horse, one of the matched team of blacks used on the ladder truck in Central fire hall, died Wednesday evening of acute indigestion. The team was the best of the city horses and were greatly admired whenever they appeared on the streets. Chief Davidson feels very keenly over the loss as he thinks it will be impossible to replace the animal with as good a match.

MOVABLE SAIL UP RIVER

Wednesday afternoon Miss L. McIntyre entertained a jolly party of thirty-five friends on a sail up the river on the steamer Strathcona. After a most enjoyable trip up the Saskatchewan the party went ashore and had a stroll in the woods, returning in time for a dance on the boat before starting for home. Dinner was served in the cabin, to which, with appropriate whittled by the outing, every one did full justice.

The instructions which Contractor Malcolm McCrimmon has received for the construction of the C.N.R. line north of Morinville would seem to indicate that it is the intention of the MacKenzie-Mann combination to branch the line at Morinville rather than proceed to Athabasca Landing.

AT THE BUILDING INSPECTORS'

Building operations continue to show practically completed and that the settlement of the building strike a few days ago. During the last few days the permits issued have been largely for residences, many of which have been delayed in starting owing to the strike. The permits issued today are as follows: Edmonton School District, two temporary schools, one on First street, Norwood, and the other on Eleventh street, Westwood, each to cost $2,000.

ASSISTANCE TO Y.W.C.A.

Several pastors of the city met at All Saints rectory Wednesday to discuss what assistance could be given by the city ministers to the Y.W.C.A. It was decided to devote a Sunday to explaining to the congregations the aims and needs of Y.W.C.A. work, but nothing in the nature of a special collection was thought advisable. The step was taken on the request from the Y.W.C.A. workers in an Edmonton hotel, together with Rev. Dr. Hunter, Rev. A. C. Myers, Rev. J. Coulter, Rev. Robt. Pearson, Rev. J. Gray and Rev. F. S. Patterson.

WHO KNOWS MCGINTY?

A telephone call to the police station several days ago asking full information regarding the suicide by hanging of one McGinty, a resident of the city, together with a full description of the deceased man. The wire was taken in hand by the chief of police, Detective Sergeant Tidbury accordingly wired to Toronto that there had been no such suicide here or as far as he could ascertain in the vicinity of Edmonton.

TAKEN TO THE FORT

Reginald Bruce, alias C. H. Bruce, who is also believed to be known as James Setler, was brought up from Stetler in Edmonton hotel, together with a letter with instructions to forward the money to St. James' post office.

LABOR DAY SPORTS

Labor Day in Edmonton, on September 6, will be the occasion of a Twin City celebration, under the auspices of the Edmonton Trades and Labor Council, and the program of events will be conducted on the Exhibition grounds similar to the celebration of last year.

TO TRY MOUNT ROBSON

To scale the peaks of Mount Robson, lying to the west of Edmonton at the Yellowhead Pass, and yet untrodden by man, is the ambition of three noted English Alpine climbers who will arrive in Edmonton early next week and proceed west at once with pack ponies to the Yellowhead.

OBITUARY

The death of Mrs. John A. McPherson, of Spruce Grove, which occurred on Friday morning, July 30, is deeply mourned by the entire community. The deceased came to Canada in the year 1880 with her parents, George and Eva Hodel, from Baden, Germany. The family settled in Waterloo County, Ontario, near Elmira. In the early nineties Mr. Hodel came west with his family and located in the Edmonton district at Spruce Grove, where he engaged in farming.

CHANGE IN TRANSIT HOTEL

The partnership existing between J. A. Murphy and James Ryan in the management of the Transit hotel in North Edmonton has been dissolved by mutual consent and in future the hotel will be conducted by Ryan alone. The Transit was opened in September 1908, by Murphy & Ryan who had a five year lease from the owner and builder, P. O. Dwyer. Mr. Murphy leaves with his wife in a few days on a visit to the Seattle exposition and will likely visit Prince Rupert also. Upon his return to Edmonton he will again enter into business in this city.

NEW STREETS SUPERINTENDENT

Jas. Gould has been appointed to the position of superintendent of streets for the city of Edmonton in accordance with the decision of the council to create such a department as arrived at several weeks ago. The applications for the position were considered by the public works committee who were given power to make the appointment. Mr. Gould has been foreman of the Bialithie Co. for some time and previous to their work here was in charge of their operations in other places. He has an extensive experience in street work and should make an excellent official.
