It is not in a spirit of black pessimism that this statement, nor the following, is made. No person in New-foundland wishes to see the gaunt spectre of famine stalking through the country. Not famine brought about by lack of money wherewith to purchase the necessaries of life, (for country is not affected financially) but great Mont Blanc explosion in Decem- to-day in honor of the visit of the Confamine brought about by inability to during the singing of Hymn No. 603, city by last night's express. procure food from the countries which have hitherto supplied us. Many causes will be contributory to this, chief among which will be, the shortage of carrying tonnage; the intention already announced, to conserve all available stocks of provisions for the use of the allied armies, and lastly the curtailing, on this account, of Newfoundland has been receiving from the British Hall on Saturday, situation which are not to be overlooked. The lack of tonnage is due to the diversion of ships from the regular commerce routes for war pur-Shipwrecked submarines and other causes, and with this diminution the output of new vessels at present is not able to cope.
