50° and 75° Dress Goods, for 39°C

THE BIGGEST SEASON we have ever had, and it's now only a matter of clearing up the broken stocks and odd pieces bound to accumulate in a store doing the large business we have gathered about us. It is of course not altogether an unselfish motive that prompts us to lower our prices on such good values. We are getting ready for reception of stocks that will be in upon us within five or six weeks-that's the selfish part. Because we have done so well we can afford to be magnanimous with what we have left, and throw down the price bars so that all may come into pasture and feast upon these bargains-that's the unselfish part. Don't miss good chances like these.
