

STANDARD

WORLD

Company, Indianapolis.]

"If you have no conscience, Madame, I have. I shall warn him. You "You would miss what you call the shall not dishonor him if I can prevent comic opera, but which to me is all it. You wish to win his love, and you there is in life. You say that I have have gauged the possibilities of it so accurately that you know you will be you think that it is easy for me to have but to ask, be it his honor or his lessen myself in my own eyes? No life. A far finer thing it would be for woman lives who is prouder than I you to win your crown at the point of Remember, you are not to hint at the sword. There would be a little what I propose to do, nor who I am. glory in it then. But even then, the See! It is all because you read somewould be waging war against a lonely eyes. Be my friend, or be my enemy not break his life, for life is more than crown; do not compel him to sully rice his honor, for honor is more than life.

Madame, do not destroy him."

Sometimes, in the passing, we are the Red Chateau, nothing but dreams adopted without a quorum. President stopped by the sound of a voice. It is of conquest and revenge.

Puder, of Newark, being without aunot the words it utters, nor the range ment the spell rendered her mute.

ishall sweep all obstacles away; nothing shall stop me. Mine the crown is, and mine it shall be. I am a woman, and I wished to avoid bloodshed. But not even that shall stay me; not even love!" Her bosom heaved, her hands were clenched, and her gray eyes had come up to him and passed him, flashed like troubled waters in the sun.

flashed like troubled waters in the sun-light.

"Madame, if you love him—"

him to bear the brunt of the cold, the heat, the watchfulness. He had made "Well?" proudly.

"Well?" proudly.

"No, I am wrong. If you loved him you would prize above all else this honor of which you intend to rob him."

"Well?" proudly.

"In the waterfulness. He had hade his bed; he was too much his father's son to whine because it was hard.

Often he used to think how a few words, from a pride humbled, would "I brought you here not to discuss have removed the barrier. whether I am right or wrong. Look words never came, nor was the pride

Maurice was somewhat troubled to discover several troopers lounging about just out of earshot. They were so arranged as to prevent egress from to Calcutta, where his colonel, who the park. He looked thoughtfully at the wall. It was eight feet in height. Madame saw the look, and said, "Corporal!" to Calcutta, where his colonel, who had received secret information concerning him, had treated him like a gentleman, and had employed him as regimental interpretare.

Corporal!"

There was a noise on the other side f the wall, and presently a head obbed up.

"Madame?" inquired the head.

"Nothing I wished to know if your companies."

"Nothing I wished to know if your companies."

"Madame?" inquired the head. bobbed up.
"Madame?" inquired the head.
"Nothing. I wished to know if you were at your post." She turned to Maurice, who was puzzled to know what all this was preamble to. "Monsieur Carewe, I never forget details. I had an idea that when I submitted my proposals to you, you might be hours he had studied, for he knew that some day he would be called upon to administer a vast fortune. . . He laid the pipe on the sill, rested his elbows beside it, and dropped his chin in his hands. What a fool he had been to waste the best years of his life! His father would have opened to him a boundless career; he would any proposals to you, you might be empted to break your parole." to him a boundless career; he would have seen the world under the guidance of a master hand. And here he "There are only two. If you do not a beggar in friends, no niche to fill, a wanderer from place to place." interfere with my plans, these troops will convey you to Brunnstadt, where wished to see it again; the memorie you will be kept in confinement until the succession to the throne is decided the succession to the other. The other protouched him as it passed; Mozart, posal is, if you promise—and I have Mendelssohn, Chopin, But faith in your word—the situation will thinking only of his loneliness, and continue the same as at present, the marvelous touch of the hands Choose, Monsieur. Which is it to be?" which evoked the great spirits was lost upon him.

remained silent. "Well! Well!" impatiently. "I accept the alternative," with bad "If I made a dashgrace. "If I made a dash—
"You would be shot; those were my orders. "And if I went to prison-" would laugh at you. For you thing which was not intended for your woman, a paralytic king, a prelate it is a matter of indifference to me who is a man of peace. What resist- You have only yourself to blame. Had ance could these three offer?

"But to gain your ends by treachery and deceit, to rob a man of his brains and heart, laughing the while in your sleeve; to break his life and make him sieur; that is the understanding." She remains in command of the circuit, the curse all woman, from Eve to you and raised her hand and made a sign, and the mother who bore him! Ah, Ma- the troopers took themselves off. "Now in vain, for the reason that five of the him his liberty. Let him go back and wish: though I date say that she will Jersey City and Baltimore, voted to recomplete the task imposed on him. Do not find you in the best of tempers." tain President Powers in office, "I dare say she won't." said Mau-It is not believed, however, that the fight against Powers will end with yes-s honor, for honor is more than life. Fitzgerald sat by a window in the 'Your cause is just, I will admit, music room. He had resurrected from the life is fight against Powers will end with yesterday's meeting. It will probably be but do not tarnish it by such detestable means. The true that a crown to me signifies nothing, but life and honor are common to us both. With all his strength and courage, my friend is helpless. All his life he has been without the society of women. If he should love you—God help him! His love would be wittout calculation, without reason, blind and furious. Madame, do not destroy him."

Sometimes, in the passing, we are common to us both. With all his significant to, the close proximity of the defeated side, much to the detriment of the league. Just what brought on the squabble is not definitely known, but is believed to be a matter of personal contest rather than one belonging to the league proper.

Reports from reliable authority says that the schedule adopted yesterday will not be accepted by Buffalo and the Red Chateau, nothing but dreams.

Twilight was gathering about, softtone. It is something indefinable, footed and shadowful. Long reaches and, though we cannot analyze it, we of violet and vermilion clouds pressed willing to follow wherever it leads, thickly on the western line of hills. resentation at the meeting, Such a voice Maurice possessed, The mists began to rise, changing though he was totally ignorant of its from opal to sapphire. The fantastic But Madame, as she listened, inclodies of wandering gypsy songs felt its magic influence, and for a mo- went throbbing through the room; rollicking gavots, Hungarian dances, low THE TURF. "Monsieur, you have missed your and slumbrous nocturnes. As the wocation; you plead well, indeed. Unfortunately, I cannot hear; my ears are of wax. No. no! I have nourished these projects too long; they are a part the long years of loneliness returned.

Two good local horses were sold recently to outside parties. One was Sheik Indrum, 2:22¼, the matinee star of me. Laughed at, you say? Have I and overwhelmed him. They mar- of last season, owned by Mr. William of me. Laughed at, you say: Have I and overwhelmed min. They have been laughed at from one end of shaled past, thirteen in all; and there the continent to the other?" passion- were glimpses of deserts, snowcapped D. Skinner, of Stratford, while Ada B. "It is my turn now, and woe mountains, men moving in the blur of to those who have dared to laugh. I smoke, long watches in the night. winner of the cup for unmarked trot-

Miss M. Richardson

Such testimony should be accepted

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's

When women are troubled with irreg-down feeling, inflammation of the they should remember there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles. Refuse to buy any other

Don't hesitate to write to Mrs.

by all women as convincing evidence

Suffering.

While no woman is entirely free from | I started to take it for painful menstruation periodical suffering, it does not seem to oe the plan of nature that women I had suffered with blinding headaches and oe the plan of nature that women should suffer so severely. Menstruation is a severe strain on a woman's month, and you can understand how glad I vitality. If it is painful or irregular was to get relief. I am in the best of health, something is wrong which should be and am pleased to give you this testimor set right or it will lead to a serious defor what your medicine has done for me."

More than fifty thousand women that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable have testified in grateful letters to Mrs. Compound stands without a peer as a Pinkham that Lydia E. Pinkham's remedy for all the distressing ills of

It provides a safe and sure way of es- Vegetable Compound rests upon the cape from distressing and dangerous well-earned gratitude of Canadian vincingly what Lydia E. Pinkham's ular, suppressed or painful menstrua-

Vegetable Compound will do for tion, leucorrhea, displacement or ul-women, they cannot fail to bring hope ceration of the womb, that bearing-

Miss Matilda Richardson of 177 Wel- ovaries, backache, bloating, (or flatulington Street, Kingston, Ont., writes: lency), general debility, indigestion and lency), general debility, indigestion and nervous prostration, or are beset with spells, and during my monthly periods I would suffer intense pain. I was advised to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am so glad that I did, for it brought new life and health to me. My monthly periods were natural and painless, and my general health improved. I have not had an ache or a pain since, and I feel it a duty as well as a pleasure to tall you what your medicine.

"Some four years ago my usually good health began to fail. I had severe pains in my back, my head ached, I would have dizzy vousness, sleeplessness, melancholy.

women.

rangement of the whole female organ-

The two following letters tell so conwell as a pleasure to tell you what your medi-cine has done for me."

Mme. Louise McKenzie of Mount Car-ful and irregular menstruation.

weaknesses and diseases.

to thousands of sufferers.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:-

Vegetable Compound overcomes pain- women.

ters, was sold to Mr. Aier McCallum. PAINFUL PERIODS YESTERDAY'S TURF WINNERS. At Memphis-Lady Wilmot, 1 to 2; James Reddick, 6 to 1: Awakening 16 te 1; Rough and Tumble, 8 to 5; Don Suggestions How to Find Relief from Such Ami. 9 to 1; Oudon, 8 to 5. At Bennings—Yorkshire Lad, 3 to 1; Tickle, 13 to 5; Toscan, 2 to 5; Brush, CLAIM UNFOUNDED.

4 to 5; Hylas, 8 to 5; The Veiled Lady, was today, the possessor of millions,

The old pile in England, he never

[To be Continued.]

TO FIGHT POWERS

Faction Against Him, Though

Defeated, Determined to Make Further Trouble.

continued throughout the year by thority from the board of directors of the Newark Club, while Buffalo, Montreal and Rochester were without rep-

The fight looks as if it was on to

TWO GOOD ONES SOLD.

Robinson, Sheik Indrum went to Mr. J.

another of Mr. Robinson's horses, and stay for some time.

WILL CONTINUE

Windsor, April 6 .- At the time that Cherry, of Saginaw, met Spracklin, the Windsor fighter, in Detroit, a few weeks ago. when Spracklin won easily, Cherry claimed that he was severely handicapped by reason of a broken right hand. It is now stated that an examination of Cherry's hand by several surgeons at Saginaw showed that ne bones of the hand were broken, and that there was nothing more seriously wrong than a bruise.

ANOTHER GO FOR MIKE. Sarnia, April 6 .- A bout has been arranged between "Mike" Ward and O'Keefe, of Chicago, to take place in ounds, at 135 pounds. THE OAR.

ENGLISHMEN MAY COME OVER. Toronto, April 6 .- Secretary Barker, of the Canadian Association of Amateur Oarsmen, is in communication rect opposition to that made by Deputy with the London, Eng., Rowing Club. Commissioner of Fisheries Bastedo, trying to induce them to send an 8oared crew to the Canadian Henley re- prohibited in Quebec The letter read: gatta, to be held at St. Catharines on James O. Weldon, London, Ont. Aug. 4 and 5. As yet no answer has been received to the invitation. The interest taken in S-oared rowing has increased greatly in Canada in the past couple of years, and this regatta is expected to be a banner one.

MAY MANAGE WOODSTOCK.

A dispatch from Woodstock says:
Delaney, of London, may manage the Woodstock team this year. Delaney is Woodstock team this year of the water where tourists and visitors resort for angling, the value of fish for sport usually far exceeds its value merely for a market. This opinion is strongly held in MAY MANAGE WOODSTOCK.

GRADE SIX THE WINNER. A very successful game of ball was played on Thursday evening between Grades V. and VI. Simcoe street school, ending in favor of Grade VI., the score DUFFERINS WILL BE IN LEAGUE. The Dufferins will be in the Juvenile League this year. They finished second in the Juvenile Hockey League last winter, and promise to make equally as good a showing on the baseball

LAWN TENNIS.

PRESTON ELECTS OFFICERS. Pinkham if there is anything about your sickness you do not understand. She will treat you with kindness and her advice is

Easter Cards 5c

and Upwards.

Easter Cards 5c

Carpets for Spring.

Carpets-a most important factor just now and one demanding careful consideration.

We are better prepared than ever to meet the demands that your wants put upon us.

Brussels Carpet.

Our entire importation of Brussels Carpet is now almost complete, the last shipment increasing our stock to three times the proportion of last year. We have actually-by careful count-fifty-eight different designs of Brussels Carpet to show you, including the much-sought-for two-toned effects. Our price range is as follows:

Full Five-Frame English Body Brussels Carpet, at $1.35, $1.25, $1.10 yard, made and laid.

Full Four-Frame English Body Brussels Carpet, at $1.15, $1.10, $1.05 and 90c yard, made and laid.

Full Three-Frame English Body Brussels Carpet, at 75c yard, made and laid.

"Iron-Clad" Overalls.

Men's "Iron-Clad" Overalls, the strongest-made Overall on the market. Every pair is double-stitched and doublefaced. For hard wear. Try a pair next $1.00

Petticoat Bargain.

Five dozen Ladies' Mercerized Percale Petticoats, black and white and colored stripes, best style and thorough workmanship; deep flounce trimmed with frills and black Umbrellas -- Saturday.

A snap in Umbrellas for men's, women's and school boys' and girls' use. Full sized 25-inch frame Umbrellas, thoroughly rain-proof covering, perfectly fast black, crook handles, a manufacturers' lot. Worth $1.25 each. Saturday.....

New Lawn Waists.

Ladies' New Pleated Shirtwaist, made of fine lawn, every pleat hemstitched, leg-o'-mutton sleeves.

1,000 Remnant lengths of Black and Colored Dress Goods, Dress Goods largely this season's goods, suitable lengths for women's skirts and waists and children's dresses. A counterful on Remnants Saturday sale tomorrow at BARGAIN PRICES.

Lace Collars for Easter.

An Old Country shipment of Ladies' Lace Collars just opened. Easter needs should be supplied at once. Guipure Lace Collars, with shoulder cape and attached stock collar, or without stock, at.....$2 00 White Battenberg Collars, with stock collar attached, worth $2.50, at...$1 50 Sets of Lace Collar and Cuffs, at Easter Cards. sweet and loving tokens to send to friends. 5c upwards.

Smart Spring Coats.

Ladies' Black Broadcloth Coats, made of fine cloth, leg-o'-mutton sleeves, inlaid collar and cuffs, trimmed with soutache braid, at.....$8 50

> OTHER STYLES IN BLACK COATS, AT $6 AND $7 50.

Ladies' Fawn Cloth Spring Coats, strapped and overlapped seams, lined through, new sleeves and turnback cuffs. Priced at....$5 00 to $10 50

J. H. Chapman & Co.

126, 128 and 1284 Dundas Street.

LONDON MAY NOT

JOIN THE LEAGUE

This City Entering the Canadian.

been sent to the meeting.

last night at Galt, asking that if only

FIGHT AGAINST NETS APPROVED

Gratified at Work of the Angling Association. Another meeting of the Thames River a large attendance, and several mat- Tuesday night. Four clubs were reters of importance were brought up and discussed. In the absence of Pre sident Elliot, Vice-President W. H. Chittick occupied the chair. The work of the association is steadily advancing. One of the plans to be carried out in the fight against the seine nets will be the circulation of petitions in all the large establishments of the city, asking that all obstructions be removed from the river. Each employe will be asked to sign the document. Full proof of the fact that the association is establishing a reputation for itself was found in the letters recelved from residents of Wallaceburg, Cashmere, Middlemiss and other towns along the river, expressing general Detroit on April 19. It will be for ten gratification at the manner in which the association has accomplished its alm. Several of the letters told of similar organizations to be formed. The following letter was received from Mr. F. Gourdeau, deputy minister of marine and fisheries, in which that official makes a statement in diwho stated that seine fishing was not Sir.-Your inquiry as to the number of at Quebec, as those and other fishing licenses in that Province are not now issued from Ottawa.

1 inclose a report on the effect of seines in inland waters by Professor Prince, in which you will see certain points stated district. I am, sir, your obedient servant, F. GOURDEAU,
Deputy Minister of Marine and Fisherles

It was decided to recommend Messrs. R. A. Jury, of this city, and Dixon, of Cashmere, for the positions of inspectors of the fisheries in this For tea tonight try some of our Orange Slice, Fancy Genoese or Wal-nut Slice. They are delicious and have that "moreish" taste like everything else that comes from Fawkes'. William H. Davis, the last of the twelve jurors who sat in the Beecher-Tilton case, is dead, and the figure and the first policy of the first first for for cooking, and Darch.

shall and Graham.

Business Men. 30-Guards, Jackson

Wood; center, Parker; forwards, Mar-

The standing is as follows:

Waverleys3

Residents Along the Thames Drawbacks to Team From Jeffries and Winner of Recent demic form in Silesia, About 1,200 Fight to Come Together— Fitz Heard From.

The Woodstock Sentinel-Review says Although a week ago it looked as Saxony. Schools in the infected dis-Angling Association was held last even- the Canadian League magnates held though Jim Jeffries would be obliged trict have been closed. ing in the Foresters' Hall. There was an important meeting in Ingersoll on to retire from the ring owing to the fact that there was no legitimate aspresented, the following delegates being present: Ingersoll, Messrs. Knight pirant for him to fight for the championship, it is now almost certain that conference of the Y. M. C. A., which and Elliott; London, Mr. O'Hagan; St. Thomas, Ponsford and Stacey: Brantthe champion will be seen in the ring elected Harvey Graham, of New Glasford, Lee. Simcoe telephoned that they were in line, although no delegate had this fall, and that his opponent will be gow, N. S., president, Mr. Graham is Marvin Hart, the clever Louisville a prominent official of the Nova Scotia A telephone message was received from he Waterloo County League, in session

The Hart-Johnson fight was the presidents elected were: Robert Kiltopic of interest during the week, and gour, Toronto, and T. F. Stephens, last night at Galt, asking that if only five clubs are secured in this league that one be turned over to them, thus making two four-club circuits. Of course, this would mean that London, St. Thomas, Woodstock and Ingersoll would form one district, and Brantford, Galt, Guelph and Parlin the other Another proposition was he would have retired from the ring. "Life in the Word of Law" this morn-Berlin the other. Another proposition was to have Brantford play in both circuits. The feeling among the delegates seemed to be that Simcoe would hardly be able With Hart the winner Jeffries has consented to meet the Louisville boxer, sented to meet the Louisvine and all that remains now to clinch the match is for a 'Frisco club to offer the match is offer the match is for a 'Frisco club to o to hold up their end, and the town to the south may be dropped. Even if London does not come to the front, there would still be four strong clubs, St. Thomas, Ingersoll, Woodstock and Brantmatch to take place before the fall Fawkes'. the matchmakers are in no hurry to

After a long discussion it was decided force matters. to leave the final selecting of the clubs to compose the league until the next meeting, which will be held in St. Hart has returned to his home town, Louisville, where he will remain until Thomas on the 14th inst., and it is expected that representatives will be present from the Waterloo League. he recovers from the walloping he took in his recent fight. After a good rest he will be prepared to get back into To The Advertiser Mr. O'Hagan said the game, and he has made up his that it was very improbable that Lon- mind that he will not participate in youth, it will remove the bodily don would enter the league. A six- any battle until he encounters Jefclub league including Brantford and fries. FITZ HEARD FROM.

places being altogethr too long. WON AT BASKETBALL him if he wants to make the match. ited.

I do not know much about him, but from what I've heard I guess he is a 'comer.' If Jeffries does not take him Woodstock team this year. Delaney is a Canadian fan, who used to play with Guelph, and played in the New England League. He is a good one and ought to give the Baby City fans their money's worth.

The Midgets and Waverleys were the victors in the basketball contests at the Y. M. C. A. last night. Both of the games were interesting contests. The line-ups and scores were as follows:

The Midgets and Waverleys were the victors in the basketball contests at the Y. M. C. A. last night. Both of the games were interesting contests. The line-ups and scores were as follows:

ENTHUSIASM AT The Midgets and Waverleys were the on, and I understand he is not likely Waverleys, 33-Guards, Canfield and Russell; center, Rudd; forwards, Ross ENTHUSIASM AT BAYFIELD. Bayfield, April 6. — A most enthusiastic meeting was held at Dr. Smith's office for the purpose of organizing a and Wickett; center, Clark; forwards, football team. The following officers were appointed: Honorary president, were appointed: Honorary president, Wellingtons, 31-Guards, Scott and William Mustard; honorary vice-president, F. A. Edwards; president, Dr. G. W. M. Smith; first vice-president, A. E. Midgets, 37-Guards, H. Wood and Erwin; second vice-president, Harvey Sparling: captain. Thomas Brownlee secretary-treasurer, George E. Greenslade; managing committee, Mado W. Liddon, James Cameron, Thornton Mustard; mascot, Eddie Sturgeon. Prospects were never brighter for having a first-class team, and the purpose is to enter the intermediate series.

THE GREATER the irritation in the THE GREATER the irritation in the throat the more distressing the cough becomes. Coughing is the effort of Nature to expel this irritating substance from the air passages. Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup will heal the inflamed parts, which exude mucous, and restore them to a healthy state, the cough disappearing under the curative effects of the medicine. It is pleasant to the taste, and the price, 25 cents, is within the reach of all. PLAGUE IN SILESIA

Thousands of Fatallties From Cereb o Spinal Meningitis.

Berlin, April 6.-Spotted fever has been raging for several months in epicases have occurred in the Opieln district, with about 50 per cent of fatalities. Sixty cases and nine deaths have been reported from the Breslau district. Seven cases and several deaths are reported from Konitz, West Prussia, Several are also announced in

Y. M. C. A. Convention.

Montreal, April 6. - The Dominion opened in the city yesterday, today Steel and Coal Company. The vice-

IT WILL PROLONG LIFE.-De Sota. the Spaniard, lost his life in the wilds of Florida, whither he went for the purpose of discovering the legendary "Fountain of Perpetual Youth," said to exist in that then unknown country. While Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil will not perpetuate youth, it will remove the bodily pains which make the young old before their time and harass the aged into untimely graves.

ART IN THE HOME. Chicago, April 5. - When asked No ornamentation adds to the finish what he thought of Marvin Hart, Fitz of a home so much as artistic fixtures. said: "It looks as if Johnson received We carry all the latest designs. The a bad deal, but I'm willing to fight Electrical Construction Company.

IT IS TO THE ADVANTAGE OF EVERY HOUSEKEEPER IN CANADA T.O USE

Ragic Baking Powder. Gillett's Perfumed Lye. Imperial Baking Powder. Gillett's Cream Tartar. Royal Yeast Cakes. Gillett's Nammoth Blue. Plagic Baking Soda.

Gillett's Washing Crystal.

MADE FOR OVER 50 YEARS. (ESTABLISHED 1852)

E.W. GILLETT COMPANY TORONTO, ONT.

mel, Montreal, Canada, writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I had heard so much good about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before thousands. Address Lynn, Mass.

At Mrs. Pinkham's Advice A Wenner Best Understands & Wenner's IIIs.

At Mrs. Pinkham's Advice A Wenner Best Understands & Wenner's IIIs.

At Mrs. Pinkham's Advice A Wenner Best Understands & Wenner's IIIs.

At Mrs. Pinkham's Secretary-treasurer, S.