LONDON JUNCTION.

LOCAL MARKET.

London, Saturday, Jan. 6.

Owing to the stormy weather the attendance at today's market was very small. Dressed goods were in large supply and this was the feature of the market.

There was a good demand for all the stuff offered. There was not much change in prices, excepting for oats.

Grain—Oats were scarce and prices decidedly higher; farmers are feeding their stock with oats, where they formerly fed other kinds of grain; what oats were offered today sold at $1.08 to $1.09 per cwt.

There is very little wheat offered on this market. The eastern markets are weaker. Hay and straw—A couple of loads of hay were brought in and sold at $1 per ton; there will be a good demand for both hay and straw at Monday's market.

Butter and Eggs—Considering the small delivery in the other lines of farm produce, there was quite a lot of butter; sales were brisk and prices were not much changed at 22c to 23c per lb. Eggs were well represented; there was a good demand, especially for the small ones, which were a trifle easier at 25c to 26c per dozen.

Apples—There were not many offered; sales were brisk at 10c to 11c per bushel.

Vegetables and Roots—Potatoes were in fair supply; sales were made mostly at 80c per dozen; cabbages went at 40c to 50c per dozen; celery, 40c per dozen; onions, 10c per bag.

Poultry—There was not the usual quantity offered; sales were brisk and prices firm; most of the turkeys sold at 15c per lb.; chickens, dressed, went at 10c to 11c per lb.; ducks, 10c to 11c per pair; geese, 10c to 11c per pair.

Dressed Hogs—There was a large supply on the market again today; sales were made at reduced prices, as the buyers say that they are not prepared to pay the proportion to the prices of live hogs. Sales were made at 8.25 to 8.75 per cwt, mostly at 8.25 and 8.50.

Live Hogs—The price for Monday will be a little higher, at 85c per cwt for fair quality; at 80c per cwt for poor quality. Butchers' Meats—There was a large supply on the stand; sales were fairly brisk at 14.50 to 15.50 per cwt for beef; lamb was not much offered; a few number have been placed in cold storage; higher, the few that were offered today sold at 11c per lb. for the carcasses; veal is in demand, at 17c to 18.50 per cwt; mutton sold fairly well at 10c to 11c per cwt; the latter price for lean light weight.

Hides and Skins—Unchanged in price.

Farmers' Poultry.
