ATTENDANCE SMALL; PRICES HOLD FIRM

Plenty of Hay Continues to Come to Market-Oats Are Scarce.

The attendance at the local market to-day was rather small, and the total of-ferings consisted of some 15 to 20 loads of ferings consisted of some 15 to 20 loads of hay and 4 loads of oats.

On account of the fairly large supply of hay at Tuesday's market, the prices today were somewhat easier, ranging from $11 50 to $13 per ton. As the supply has been rather small of late, the demand was strong and the sales were made Oats were firm at from $1 to $1 08 per cwt, and the demand was such that the supply was purchased early in the day. On account of the scarcity of hogs throughout the London district, there was no shipment today. CHICAGO BOARD OF TRADE. Special to H. C. Becher.] CHICAGO, March 12. Low. 89 88% — Open. ...$ 8934 8858
