

THE TORONTO WORLD.

THURSDAY MORNING, MAR. 4, 1886.

Another Great Electoral Struggle. There is to be another general election in England, so says the Globe's London correspondent, who cables the following, under date of March 3:

Mr. Morley's speech at the Liberal meeting in Glasgow yesterday, in which he said that the present position of the Liberal party is like the position of the House of Commons before the outbreak of the present war, is not a very encouraging one.

The Liberal party is in a very weak position, and it is not likely to come to power again. The Liberal party is in a very weak position, and it is not likely to come to power again.

It is a general election, and it is not likely to come to power again. The Liberal party is in a very weak position, and it is not likely to come to power again.

where the said meetings were held to break up a quill pen, and it is many years since the Government and the Office of Canada learned that breaking up meetings is a bad business that two can go into with loss to both.

The World sometimes speaks in "four tones," but adds that "it is fair and honest." We desire no higher praise from either side of the issue.

James Macdonald, writing from Kinross, says: "R. B. is a remedy for disease of the blood, liver and kidneys, and an excellent preparation in this locality. I have used it, and speak from experience as well as observation."
