

Toronto Markets.

CANADIAN CHURCH PRESS OFFICE,
Wednesday, August 22nd, 1860.

The supply of Fall Wheat, new and old, has been only about 1,500 bushels. The highest price realized for old was $1.24, and for new, $1.20 per bushel. Middling samples sold at from $1.10 to $1.14, and inferior at from $1 to $1.07. Some of the new wheat is very good; but the medium and lower samples are not of so good corresponding qualities.

There has been very little Spring Wheat brought into market since our last. Prime samples fetch $1.10; other qualities from $1 to $1.05 per bushel.

The supply of Oats has been good, and prices remain steady at our last quotation—32c. to 33c.

There is little change to note in Flour. Small quantities of new have commenced to come in, but millers have not yet done much in this article. Flour from new wheat making extra superior, has been offered at $7.75 per barrel, but no sales could be effected at this figure. Prices may be quoted as follows: Superfine, $5.15 to $5.20; Fancy, $5.30 to $5.40; Extra, $5.20 to $5.00; Double Extra, $4.10 to $4.25 per barrel.

The supply of Hay has fallen off. Prices took a sudden start, and went up to $15 per ton; the range being from that down to $10.

There have been some extra Cattle on the market during the week, for which $6 per 100 lbs. was paid. What is usually considered as first class, sold at from $4 to $4.50; inferior at from $3 to $3.50. The supply of all sorts is good.

The demand for Sheep and Lambs is good,—the former bringing $3.50 to $4.50 each; and the latter from $1.65 to $2.25 each.

Calves are scarce and in demand, at from $5 to $6 for the best, and $3 to $4 for common.
