PUBLISHER'S NOTES.

We will always be glad to forward sample copies to those desiring such.

JOURNALS will occasionally be lost in transmission through the mails. We are always ready to re-mail such when notified of the loss.

Subscriptions are always acknowledged on the wrapper of first number after receipt.

American Currency, stamps, Post Office orders, and New York and Chicago (par) drafts accepted at par in payment of subscription and advertising accounts.

We can supply Binders for the JOURNAL at 25 cents each post-paid, with name printed on the back in Gold letters.

Subscription Price, $1.00 per Annum Postage free to Canada and the United States; to England, Germany, etc, 70 cents per year extra; and to all Countries not in the Postal Union, $1.00

The number on each wrapper or address-label will show the expiring number of your subscription, and by comparing this with the Whole No. on the JOURNAL you can ascertain your exact standing.

ERRORS.—We make them : so does every one, and we will cheerfully correct them if you write us. Try to write in good naturedly, but if you cannot, then write tous, any way. Do not complain to any one else or let it pass. We want an early opportunity to make right any injustice we may do.

TO CONTRIBUTORS.

Communications on any subject of interest to the Bee-keeping fraternity are always welcome, and are solicited.

Beginners will find our Query Department of much value. All questions will be answered by thoroughly practical men. Questions solicited.

When sending in anything intended for the JOURNAL do not mix it up with a business communication. Use different sheets of paper. Both may, however be enclosed in the same envelope.

Reports from subscribers are always welcome. They assist greatly in making the JOURNAL interesting. If any particular system of management has been tried to your success, and you are willing that your neighbors should know it, tell them through the medium of the JOURNAL.
