

it was with great difficulty, and by working day and night, that all was finished and furnished on the 19th, and a single day left for other necessary arrangements.

The Service of Consecration commenced at 10 o'clock. The Bishop, preceded by his domestic Chaplain (the Rev. Mr. GREY) bearing the Pastoral Staff, and followed by the rest of the Clergy two and two, (thirty-six in number) all in surplices, walked in procession from the Crypt, and on entering at the West door began to chant the 24th Psalm. This was continued till the Bishop reached the Sacarium, or platform at the Eastern end; on either side of which are the stalls or seats for the Clergy. A chair was placed in the centre for the Bishop. On his Lordship's right hand stood the Registrar, and on his left the Chaplain holding the Staff. The Deed of Conveyance of the Site was then presented to the Bishop, and, after an address and prayers appropriate, the Sentence of Consecration was read by the Registrar. The Bishop signed the Sentence and ordered it to be preserved in the archives of the Diocese.

His Lordship was then conducted to his Episcopal chair by the Archdeacon and his Chaplains, and the Ceremony of Installation gone through according to the ancient forms. The Pastoral Staff was attached to the left hand side of the Bishop's chair, and the Archdeacon and Chaplains retired to their Stalls.

The Service for the day then commenced. The Prayers were intoned with excellent effect by the Precentor (the Rev. Mr. Tuckwell). Mr. Mudge, one of the Theological Students, presided at the organ, and (although the choir were inconveniently placed in consequence of all the seats in the Sacarium being occupied by the Clergy,) the chanting of the Canticles and Psalms gave general satisfaction. The anthem was from the 150th Psalm, "O praise God in His holiness." The Sanctus, sung as an Introit, was that by O. Gibbons. The organ is small, but being a great novelty in Newfoundland was much admired: and undoubtedly gave a solemnity to the Service which no other instrument can give. The Litany was sung by the Bishop's command; the Archdeacon read the Ante-Communion Service; the Bishop preached, and after dwelling upon the wonderful circumstances under which the Church had been erected, and the lessons which the remembrance of these circumstances ought to teach those who frequent and use it, at least for this generation, he took occasion to explain the nature and purpose,—1st of a Church generally, and 2nd of a Cathedral, and particularly insisted on the impropriety of letting or appropriating seats in that Church, which is, in fact, the Mother or Parish Church of the whole Diocese. We understand that all the seats are free, and though some have been assigned to prevent confusion, no payment in the way of rent will be received. After the Sermon the Offertory sentences were read, and a collection was made from the Communicants and Congregation. Five of the Clergy assisted his Lordship in the distribution of the Sacrament. A large number of persons communicated with the Clergy. The offerings amounted to £105, in addition to £35 subscribed specially by the Clergy for a painted window. The Service concluded at 2 o'clock.

THE CANADA LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY.

INCORPORATED BY ACT OF PARLIAMENT.

HEAD OFFICE NO. 32, KING STREET, HAMILTON, C. W.

THIS COMPANY is prepared to grant ASSURANCES ON LIVES, whether single or joint, to sell Annuities, to purchase Reversions, and to transact all business in which the risk of Life is concerned.

Tables have been expressly calculated from the most accurate data: and the Company is enabled, from its small expenditure, and the high rate of interest which money commands in Canada, to offer terms of assurance much more favorable than the low rate of interest attainable on investments by British Companies and their generally large expenditure can with any regard to safety permit.

An exact statement of its receipts and expenditure is annually published by the Company and forwarded to all who may be interested.

Of no other Life Assurance Company can it be said that it invests all its Funds in Canada, and that it does not consequently contribute to the immense sum of money which is yearly sent out of the Province to pay British or Foreign Companies for that, in which [and this is nearly a solitary instance] neither Great Britain nor the neighbouring States can fairly offer competition.

To parties who may at any time feel disinclined, or unable to continue the payment of their premiums, this Company will grant Policies payable at death fairly representative of the value of such payments as they may have made, and it further engages to purchase policies for an equitable consideration after five or more full premiums have been paid thereon.

Three-fourths of the profits realised in the Mutual Branch are yearly divided amongst the policy holders thus assured.

A peculiar feature of the Company is that it is not desirous to make profits by lapsed Policies.
