Air-Tight Bedrooms.

Air-tight bedrooms are among the evils of civilization. They are not quite air-tight, but they come so near to it that health is much impaired by sleeping in them. It is poor economy to have large, airy parlors, and small, ill-ventilated bedrooms; and yet nothing is more common. In the bedroom we spend from seven to eight consecutive hours—on an average one-third part of our lives. A person goes into one of these rooms with the door closed. How long will this air last him? Even if we suppose the sleeping-room to contain one thousand cubic feet, it would last its occupant two hours and a half. What is he to breathe the other five or six hours? Carbonic-acid gas and his own polluted breath and exhalations—in other words a deadly poison. Though people do not often die from this cause, yet many of them are suffering from dizziness, headache, dyspepsia, and a host of kindred diseases induced by sleeping in such contracted and ill-ventilated rooms. The morning finds such sleepers wearied, jaded, unrefreshed, with evil tasting mouths and general discomforts. Beware of air-tight bedrooms. The Lord has poured out the air forty miles deep; let us be sure and get our share of it.—The Safeguard.

"That Beastly Drink."

Dean Stanley once said: "In traveling in France, I usually take the third-class, that I may have some talk with the laboring people." The Bishop of Newcastle-on-Tyne has done the same thing in the north. The Bishop, who is a staunch advocate of total abstinence, was travelling third-class incognito, dressed in a worn-out clerical suit, and during a part of his journey had a grimy pitman for companion. The collier broke the ice in this fashion: "Spect you're one o' they poor curates, noo, travelling along o' the likes o' huz?" "Well, I was a curate once,"—said the Bishop; and the miner interpreted the rest as follows: "Oo, ay, I see; that beastly drink again! Well, lad, thee moost swear off, and win oop again. It's never too laate to give 't oop."

THE FORM OF BAPTISM

By J. B. BRINEY.

An Argument Designed to Prove Conclusively That

Immersion is the Only Baptism

AUTHORIZED BY THE BIBLE.

With an Answer to Same

By Rev. Jos. L. Tucker, D. D., Rector of Christ Episcopal Church, Mobile, Ala., to which is Appended a rejoinder by the Author.

WITH AN INTRODUCTION BY J. H. GARRISON

12mo, Cloth, $1.00.

"In 1891 Dr. R. P. Huger, Episcopalian, and Dr. E. C. Anderson, Disciple, both of Anniston, Ala., had some friendly conversations as to the Scriptural form of baptism, and the former submitted to the latter the following proposition: "I hereby offer one thousand dollars ($1,000) for the conclusive evidence that immersion is taught as Christian baptism—that is, as the only form of Christian baptism taught by the Bible. The judges shall be composed of five clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church, to be chosen by me, and five men to be chosen by Dr. E. C. Anderson. R. P. HUGER."

Before this proposition was submitted in writing, Dr. Huger suggested that six men (three on each side) constitute the judges, and Dr. Anderson proposed that the six select a seventh man. This reasonable proposition Dr. Huger positively declined. Whereupon Dr. Anderson suggested that the number be increased to ten (five on each side), thinking that possibly among five Episcopal clergymen, one such man as Dean Stanley, Dean Goulburn, Bishop Lightfoot, or Bishop Colenso might be found. Dr. Huger selected T. F. Gallor, W. P. Dulse, E. W. Spaulding, T. L. Tucker, and W. D. Martin; Dr. Anderson selected J. W. McGarvey, B. W. Johnson, W. J. Loos, H. McDiarmid and B. B. Tyler. After these ten men had been selected, Dr. Anderson proposed that the number be increased to fifteen by the addition of five lawyers or five learned Jews. This proposition was rejected. After Dr. Tucker sent in his review of "The Form of Baptism," Dr. Anderson proposed that the whole matter, including the "review" and Bro. Briney's rejoinder, be referred to three or five lawyers. This proposition was also promptly rejected. Thus all reasonable prospect of anything more than an evenly divided verdict was persistently shut out from the start, and the expected evenly divided verdict has been rendered. "The Form of Baptism" includes 13 chapters and covers 162 pages of the work. The headings of the various chapters are: I. Laws of Language and Rules of Interpretation. II. Baptizo in Greek Literature. III. Baptizo as Understood by Levicographers. IV. The Voice of Scholarship as to the Meaning of Baptizo. V. The Meaning of Baptizo as shown by the Hebrew word Tabhal. VI. Baptizo in the New Testament—Its Literal Use. VII. Baptizo in the New Testament—Its Metaphorical Use. VIII. Allusions to Baptism in the New Testament. IX. The Voice of History. X. The History of Affusion. XI. Ancient Translations. XII. Objections Considered. XIII. Recapitulation, etc. The above thirteen chapters constitute the best compend on the subject of Baptism ever published. It leaves absolutely nothing to be said, and the "review," occupying about fifty pages of the book, by Dr. Tucker, shows how utterly unsalable are its positions, and unanswerable are its arguments. No wonder his brethren were afraid to have one purely disinterested man on the jury. Bro. Briney's "reply" to this "review" is overwhelming. Though courteous (a hard thing to be under the circumstances), he is unsparing in his exposure of Dr. Tucker's fallacies. Bro. Briney in his reply is seen at his best. As a fine piece of controversial writing it has never been excelled. The volume is supplied with an excellent index, and has an Introduction written by Bro. J. H. Garrison.
