THE WEEK.

This issue is rather shy of reading matter but we shall make amends for it next week,

Mr. Lydiatt announces that he has his new paper The Canadian Philatelic Weekly, in press. It must be a counterfeit.

There is still time for you to send your name as a charter member of the Canadian Phil. Press Club. A post card will do, addressed to F. I. Weaver, Berlin, Ont.

We will give you an inch four insertions beginning with November special for 50c.

This adv. recently appeared in a matrimonial paper: "A stamp collector, possessor of 12,542 stamps, wishes to marry a lady who is an ardent collector and possessor of

The Original CANADIAN PHILATELIC WEEKLY should be addressed Box 494, Berlin, Ont.

We would like to know:

Why Bach and his gang did not put their strength in the D. P. A. instead of forming a new society?

Why the new Toronto weekly took unto itself our cognomen?

Why the Metropolitan Philatelist does not exchange with us?

Why friend Widdicombe of St. Kitts sold the O. P.? It leaves an aching void.

Why more philatelic scribes do not become members of the Canadian Philatelic Press Club?

Why you do not subscribe at 10c a year?

Why you do not advertise at 25c an inch?

A meeting of D. P. A. Officers will likely be held in Toronto on Thanksgiving day.

The Virginia Philatelist is now official organ of the Southern Phil. Association.

A New Brunswick is violet recently brought $300 at a sale in St. Martins, England.

A "one dollar William" will pay for a  $\frac{1}{2}$  page adv. in our Nov. special.
