The enormous sale of "Richard Carvel," which some time ago attained 375,000, gave the publishers courage to issue "The Crisis" in a first edition of 100,000. The illustrations are by Howard Chandler Christy, and are excellent.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"It is not too much to say that it is the best novel founded on the civil war period that has yet been published."—Brooklyn Daily Eagle.

"He has followed no master here, however great; he stands on his own merits."—New York Mail and Express.

"Long after this book has been read, closed and put aside, the people who lived, loved and suffered in its pages will be a part of your life."—Book News.

"A complete, well-rounded whole—a satisfying romance."—Boston Transcript.

"This new novel is delightful, surpassing even "Richard Carvel," which is the highest possible praise for a work of fiction."—Toronto Mail and Empire.

"The Crisis" may be obtained from any Bookseller: Paper 75c., Cloth $1.25
