A PRETTY ROMANCE. how two lovers, separated for half a cen-

TUBY, FOUND EACH OTHER AGAIN. VINCENNES, Ind., Dec. 24.—A pretty little remance has just come to light in this county. remance has just come to light in this county, in which an old couple have figured for forty-six years, and which finally culminated in the marriage of the participants. Many years ago there lived in Washington Township, Kuox County, a girl whose charm of face and manner has been handed down as a beautiful tradition. So beautiful was she that there were not wanting those among the older men of the community who say that Charlotte Thompson was the handsomest woman they had ever known. There lived here, too, at that early day, a youth, bright, gallant and manly, whose memory has always remained cherished and respected by those who knew him; so much so that his old friends always speak of Harry Posey in the gentlest terms.

It is not strange, then, that these two were lovers in that olden time. The fates decreed, however, that they should be separated, and nowever, that they about the fair lady departed with her friends for the North, while the disappointed lover bade adieu to home and kindred and disappeared in the Sunny South. These lovers, however far apart they wandered, still loved. A last letter missentand unanswered, by some peculiar fatality, created the cruel separation, but the lovers nevertheless cherished each other in the fondest remembrance, and were true as steel to their youthful devotion.

One autumn day not long ago a lady strange to the present inhabitants of Bruceville arrived at that quiet little village, and was entertained as a guest at the residence of her consin, Noah Roberts, one of the wealthiest citizens of the country. The lady came from Coldwater, Mich., and was royally entertained by her relatives. This lady was none other than Charlotte Thompson.

A strange gentleman was in the community, too, visiting friends and old schoolmates. He was known to few, but gave his name as Harry Posey, with his post office address as Sweetwater, Tex. At a social gathering one evening Harry Posey and Charlotte Thompson met. For forty-six years they had not seen each other, nor heard one word concerning each other's welfare. Explanations were made. The old love was rekindled. Vows were renewed, the old promises were recalled, and in the waning years of their lives, when almost three score years and ten had passed over their heads, their hearts and hands were reunited. So last Sanday evening, just at the twi light hour, these old people, Harry Posey and Charlotte Thompson, were bound heart and hand in matrimonial yoke. Elder J. A. McMurry, of Columbus, Kan., officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Posey are sixty-seven and sixty. three years of age, respectively. This beautiful romance is thus ended in a happy union, and their large circle of friends hope they will both live to worship each other to a ripe and useful old age. An elegant banquet was given at the residence of John Emison in honor of the interesting event.

NAVAL FIGHT AMONG OYSTERMEN.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 24 -Reports from Lower Chesapeake show that oyster pirates are giving the State police navy a lively time. The trouble between dredgers and tongmen is also increasing, and unless the oyster police take more decisive action a conflict resulting in serious lose of life and an immense number of oysters will result. The schooners which arrived down the bay yesterday had their rigging set, their sails perforated with bullet shots, and showed other signs of having taken part in a battle. The captains of the vessels report that early yesterday morning over 100 armed tongmen started out from Herring Bay on the west side of Chesapeake. They located in a large sloop, which they had seized without license. They drove away the dredgers who were at work on Holland Island bar. The place is forbidden to dredgader the State law, but they work there all the same same. The captain, whose ves-sel was at anchor, said the night was foggy and the first he knew of the approach the tongmen was a blaze of light which lit up the bay and called every man on every boat on deck. The report from a hundred rifles, nuckets and pistols, a numered rines, numbers and pietons, all blazing away at ouce, was enough to astonish anybody, and the way in which we got up our anchors and took advantage of every puff of wind to get out of the way of the bullets, was lively. Several of the dredgers, however, were wounded. The cystermen of Somerset and Dorchester counties also had a naval fight.

The Russian army balloon service was lately tested by two lieutenants of sappers, who, with a professional aeronaut, accom-plished a journey of 106 miles in five hours. A carrier-pigeon service is being organized.

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS.

The reason why Hagyard's Yellow Oil is so popular with the people as a household remedy for pain, is in the fact that while many liniments only relieve, Yellow Oil both relieves and curce Rheumatism and all aches, pains, soreness and lameness.

THE BEST COUGH CURE. The best remedy for Cough and all Throat and Lung troubles, is one that loosens and dislodgen the tough mucuous, clears the bronchial tubes, and allays irritation. This is what Hagyard's Pecteral Balsam does in every case. A German naturalist finds that the Eastern hemisphere affords 269 plants and 58 animals useful to man, while the Western world con-
