

4. Information classification for Security Purposes . . . . .	9
What needs to be safeguarded? . . . . .	9
Information classified in the national interest . . . . .	9
Information designated as PROTECTED (SENSITIVE) . . . . .	10
Information designated as PROTECTED – PERSONAL . . . . .	10
Material assets . . . . .	11
Classification and designation . . . . .	11
Levels of classification and designation . . . . .	11
TOP SECRET, SECRET, CONFIDENTIAL . . . . .	11
PROTECTED, PROTECTED (SENSITIVE) . . . . .	12
Departmental Security Classification Guide . . . . .	12
Who can designate or classify information? . . . . .	13
Extracts from classified or designated material . . . . .	13
5. Protection of Classified Information . . . . .	14
Handling of classified information . . . . .	14
Minimum storage requirements . . . . .	14
Transmission of classified material . . . . .	14
Mailing procedures . . . . .	15
Classified material for missions abroad . . . . .	16
Documents requiring special handling . . . . .	16
Auxiliary materials . . . . .	17
Disposal of classified waste . . . . .	17
Document custody in offices . . . . .	17
Absent card . . . . .	18
6. COSICS and EDP Security . . . . .	19
EDP Security Policy . . . . .	19
Microcomputer security policy . . . . .	19
COSICS . . . . .	19
Security classification on documents . . . . .	19
EDP security inspections . . . . .	20
Infractions . . . . .	20