

Mr. Campbell—On Friday next—INQUIRY OF MINISTRY—1. What did it cost the Post Office Department to carry newspapers for the year ending 31st December, 1927?

2. What revenue was derived from this service?

3. What did it cost the Post Office Department to carry newspapers for the year ending 31st December, 1928?

4. What revenue was derived from this service?

*Mr. Church—On Friday next—ADDRESS—For a copy of all letters, instructions, regulations, Orders in Council, telegrams, and other documents issued by the Government of Canada or any Member thereof, and any other person or persons, regarding the substitution of Canada's Mail for His Majesty's Mail on postal offices, postal wagons, motors, or other postal equipment, and in relation to the removal of His Majesty's initials "G.R." from said post office equipment.

*Mr. Marcil—On Friday next—ORDER OF THE HOUSE—For a copy of all petitions, letters, telegrams and correspondence generally, exchanged between the Department of Railways and Canals and the opponents of a projected railway between Causapsca and Gaspé;

Also for copy of all letters and telegrams and correspondence generally exchanged between the Minister of Railways and Canals and the promoters of the above railway.

*Mr. Cowan—On Friday next—ORDER OF THE HOUSE—For a copy of all letters, telegrams, papers and other documents, with reference to the dismissal of William S. Assifat, Postmaster at Sifton, Manitoba, and the appointment of a successor to the said position.

Mr. Kennedy—On Friday next—PROPOSED RESOLUTION—That, in the opinion of this House, the construction of a direct railway outlet for the Peace River country to the Pacific Coast is a national necessity.

The Prime Minister—That the Select Standing Committee on Standing Orders be instructed to consider the advisability of amending the Standing Orders so that certain Estimates may be referred to a committee and so that Bills reported from a Standing or Select Committee shall be placed on the Order Paper for Third Reading after having been sufficiently debated by the House.