

the Petitioner may supplement the same by statutory declaration to be laid before the Committee.

The Committee may, if the circumstances of the case seem to require it, recommend a particular mode for service of a copy of the Bill upon the party from whom the divorce is sought, before the second reading of the Bill.

K

Upon the adoption of the Report of the Committee, the Bill may be introduced and read a first time.

L

The second reading of a Bill of Divorce shall not take place till after fourteen days from the adoption of the report of the Committee, and a notice of the second reading shall be affixed to the door of the Senate during that period.

A copy of such notice and of the Bill shall, at the instance of the Petitioner, be served personally, if practicable, on the party from whom the divorce is sought, or served in such other manner as may have been prescribed on Report of the Committee, and proof of such service shall be adduced before the Committee, who shall report thereon to the Senate.

Upon the adoption of the report of the Committee as to the sufficiency of such service the Bill may be read a second time.

M

When the Bill is read a second time, it shall be referred to The Select Committee on Divorce, who shall proceed with all reasonable despatch to hear and to enquire into the allegations set forth in the preamble of the Bill and take evidence touching the same and the right of the petitioner to the relief prayed.
