

CHAPTER LIII.

- B. Baraga Writes on the Civil War.—He Establishes a new Indian Mission at St. Martin's Bay.—Visits the Mission at the "Baye des Goulais."..... 334

CHAPTER LIV.

- Bishop Baraga's Labors during the Year 1863.—Anecdotes about Bishops Baraga and Marty..... 339

CHAPTER LV.

- Labors of B. Baraga in 1864.—Two Letters, of Sept. 18 and Nov. 29, 1864..... 345

CHAPTER LVI.

- Interesting Account of the Founding of the Sisters' School at L'Anse Mission.—B. Baraga's First and Last Dying Gift to the School..... 351

CHAPTER LVII.

- Removal of the Episcopal See from Sault Ste. Marie to Marquette..... 356

CHAPTER LVIII.

- Bishop Baraga's Last Sickness and Death..... 362

CHAPTER LIX.

- Short Rsumé of the Life and Labors of Bishop Baraga.—His Many Virtues and Accomplishments.—A Model Student, Priest, Indian Missionary, and Bishop..... 369
- Short Biographical Sketches of Missionaries who have Labored Amongst the Indians of the Northwest.
- Rev. Francis Pierz..... 379
- Rev. Otto Skolla, O. S. F., Str. Obs..... 393
- Very Rev. Edward Jacker, V. G..... 409
- Rev. Laurence Lautischar..... 416
- Rev. Theodore Van den Broek, O. P..... 423
- Bishop Baraga's Indian Encyclical Letter..... 430
- A Few Peculiarities of the Chippewa Language..... 448
- Historical and Biographical Notes..... 454
- Short Biography of Vincent Roy..... 472