

I N D E X,

|                                                                                                                            |              |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------|
| Policy, not avoided by an intended Deviation                                                                               | 316          |
| On a Cargo, its Form                                                                                                       | 351          |
| On the Liberty of a Man                                                                                                    | 367          |
| At Amsterdam, its Particulars                                                                                              | 351 & seq.   |
| In France, what must be made their Contents, &c.                                                                           | 322          |
| Pomerania, its Trade                                                                                                       | 880          |
| Pondicherry, its Trade                                                                                                     | 813          |
| Porto, Percutti, or Percut, its Trade                                                                                      | 811          |
| Port, its Definition                                                                                                       | 167          |
| Ports British, List of, and with Laws and Regulations of each                                                              | ditto to 123 |
| Foreign                                                                                                                    | 234          |
| Porto Belle, its Trade                                                                                                     | 850          |
| Porto Cavallo, its Trade                                                                                                   | 850          |
| Porto Rico, its Trade                                                                                                      | 849          |
| Portugal, its Trade with Great-Britain                                                                                     | 638          |
| Its general Trade                                                                                                          | 745          |
| Ditto with Ireland                                                                                                         | 746          |
| Ditto with France                                                                                                          | ditto        |
| Ditto with Venice                                                                                                          | ditto        |
| Its African Company's Trade                                                                                                | 747          |
| Its American Trade                                                                                                         | 858          |
| Possession of a Ship, without a just Title, its Consequence                                                                | 56           |
| Power of Marriage Bonds in Bankruptcy                                                                                      | 549          |
| Premium for Admission into the Russian Company,                                                                            | 712          |
| Prisoners in a Ship of War taken fairly by th. Enemy shall have their Wages during their Imprisonment                      | 290          |
| Privateers and Capers, their Definition                                                                                    | 236          |
| What Commission they must have                                                                                             | 237          |
| Their Contracts with the Mariners                                                                                          | ditto        |
| Must give Bond not to break Treaties, subsisting with the Crown                                                            | ditto        |
| Not to use their Captives ill                                                                                              | ditto        |
| Penalties on wilfully taking or destroying neutral Goods of Ships, &c.                                                     | 258          |
| Copies of Commissions and Instructions                                                                                     | 247          |
| In what Manner may be insured                                                                                              | 316          |
| One was insured for a Month, and was damaged by the Enemy, and the Time of re-issuing exceeded the Month, not a total Loss | 321          |
| Insured, Interest or no Interest, &c. was taken and re-taken, yet the Insurers bore the Loss                               | 322          |
| Insured on those Terms was taken, re-taken, and the Salvage forgiven; judged a total Loss                                  | 326          |
| Prize Goods taken by a Privateer, in Sight of another Privateer, both shall share equally                                  | 239          |
| Process of the Woollen Manufacture                                                                                         | 617          |
| Proclamations for Peace and War, how performed                                                                             | 278          |
| Prohibitions against a Suit in the Admiralty, when gran                                                                    | 108          |
| Promissory Notes, when bear Interest by Indorsement                                                                        | 422          |
| Their Form                                                                                                                 | ditto        |
| New Act of Parliament concerning them                                                                                      | 424          |
| Prompt Payment at the Custom-House, new Act concerning it                                                                  | 996          |
| Protections and Passports, their Definition                                                                                | 277          |
| Protests against Bills of Exchange, when may be made                                                                       | 424          |
| Their Form                                                                                                                 | ditto        |
| When are to be notified                                                                                                    | ditto        |
| Against Bills on the Fairs of Lyons, when to be made                                                                       | 456          |
| Ditto, on the Fairs of Frankfurt                                                                                           | 457          |
| Ditto, on Leipzig and Namburg                                                                                              | 458          |
| May be made for the Remainder, when Part of a Bill is paid                                                                 | 459          |
| Must be made for Bills accepted, payable at a longer Time than specified                                                   | 460          |
| Province, its Trade and Products                                                                                           | 731          |
| Provoost Martial in the Fleet, his Duty                                                                                    | 287          |
| Prussia, its Trade                                                                                                         | 880          |
| Ptolemais, had Egypt for their Share of Alexander the Great's Dominions                                                    | 5            |
| Their great Care of Trade, and the flourishing Condition they raised Alexandria to by it                                   | ditto        |

Pisleny Philadelphia, built the first Lighthouse 216

Q

QUARANTINE to be performed at Stangate Creek, &c. 271 to 275

R

|                                                               |            |
|---------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| RADNORSHIRE , its Products                             | 620        |
| Rajapour, its Products                                        | 807        |
| Rambang, or Rambam, its Trade                                 | 835        |
| Ransom, promised to a Pirate, is not binding by the Civil Law | 258        |
| Bill, Copy of                                                 | 256        |
| Ditto, in France                                              | ditto      |
| Reassurances, when may be made                                | 341        |
| Registering of Ships, the latest Regulations of               | 66 to 69   |
| Remedy against Goolers for a Bankrupt's Escape                | 587        |
| Remitters, See Bills of Exchange .                     |            |
| Renfrew, its Products                                         | 624        |
| Reports on Ships Arrival, at the Custom-house                 | 987        |
| Omissions of to rectify                                       | ditto      |
| Reprisals, two-fold                                           | 230        |
| Letters of, when to be granted                                | 231        |
| When made, any Overplus must be re-stored                     | 235        |
| Restraint of Princes, what it is                              | 236        |
| Revel, its Trade                                              | 882        |
| Riga, its Trade                                               | ditto      |
| Rochele, its Trade and Products                               | 725        |
| Romans, their Commerce                                        | 5          |
| Learnt Navigation from the Greeks                             | 50         |
| Discovered to us the East-Indies                              | 678        |
| Their Bankers' Business                                       | 409        |
| Rome, its Trade                                               | 755        |
| Ros, its Products                                             | 624        |
| Rouffian, its Trade and Products                              | 736        |
| Roxburgh, its Products                                        | 624        |
| Royal-Exchange Insurance, when incorporated                   | 309        |
| Company of the Philippines in Spain, their Charter            | 743        |
| Rules for working Simple and Compound Arbitrations            | 493 & seq. |
| For striking to the Castle at Cronenburg, near Elsinour       | 867        |
| Russia Company, when obtained their Charter                   | 712        |
| Its Trade with England                                        | 713        |
| Rutlandshire, its Products                                    | 615        |

S

|                                                                                       |       |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|
| SAFE Conducts, their Nature                                                    | 277   |
| How must be filled up                                                                 | ditto |
| Sail-Cloth, foreign, Regulations on Importation                                       | 74    |
| Bethish-made, Encouragement of by Bounties, &c.                                       | ditto |
| Sailors, in the Sugar-Trade, what Money may be advanced to them                       | 97    |
| May sue for their Wages in the Court of Admiralty                                     | 113   |
| Sailors must pay 6d. per Month to Greenwich Hospital                                  | 114   |
| How to be secured and collected                                                       | ditto |
| Their Wills not to be made on the same Paper, &c. with Letters of Attorney            | 117   |
| Who are exempt from paying to Greenwich Hospital                                      | ditto |
| Must not absent themselves from the Ship they belong to                               | 119   |
| Loose their Wages if Ship be lost before first Delivery                               | 114   |
| Their Wages to be paid in 30 Days after the Ship's Entry at the Custom-house          | 120   |
| Must not refuse fighting against Pirates                                              | 121   |
| Exemptions from being pressed                                                         | 122   |
| In the East India Service, not to pay to the Fund for those in other Merchant Service | 129   |
| Drunk, hurting one another, the Consequence                                           | 131   |
| Must have their Wages, though the Ship be seized for Debt                             | ditto |
| Wages not to be brought into an Average, if a Ship be detained by Order of State      | 165   |
| Letters of Attorney must be made revocable                                            | 223   |