

INDEX.

second arrival at his estate, with remarks thereon, 179, 180; quits it, and returns by sea to Boston, 184.
Kosciusko, General, employed in the army of General Gates at Saratoga, 469; Author's opinion of and friendship for, ib.
Kyrningham, in the Green Mountain, township of, 211.

L.

Labour, price of at Norfolk, 14; at Woodstock, 100; at Stonningtown, 137; near Haverhill, 200; at Marlborough, 205; Springfield, 207; Westfield, 211; at Stockbridge, 212; at Kenderhook, 216; at Hudson, 219; Katkill, 225; New Pattz, 233; in Queen Ann's county, 288.
Land, price of, at Norfolk, 13; at Williamsburg, 27; at Staunton, 89; at Keyfsetown, 93; Shenandoah Valley, 98; at Woodstock, 100; near Harper's Ferry, 123; at Stonningtown, 137; near Haverhill, 200; near Brookfield, 206; at Springfield, 207; at Kyrningham, 211; at Kinderhook, 216; at Sperenza, 220; near Katkill, 223; at Kingston, 230; at New Pattz, 233.
—, produce of the, at Norfolk, 6, 7; at Williamsburg, 27; at Staunton, 89; at Fredericktown, 125; at Stonningtown, 137; at Marlborough, 205; near Brookfield, 206; at Westfield, 211; at Kinderhook, 217; at Katkill, 227; at Chester, 286; in Queen Ann's county, 288.
Law, Mr. 336*.
Laws, of the State of Virginia, against gaming, 39; against inoculation, 40.
Lea, Thomas, his opinion on working a corn-mill, 253.
Lehigh Mountains, account of, 397, 422.
Lime-stone, value of, at New York, 231.
Lindsley, Major, William, Commissioner of Customs-house at Norfolk, 17; his civilities to the Author, ib.
Livingston, Edmund, his character as a politician, 467, 468.
Livingstons, Messrs. of New York, proprietors of the town of Sperenza, 220.
London, in the Green Mountains, township of, 211.
Long Island, description of, 466; its population, ib.
Lowel, Adjutant-general, his conduct to the Author, 242.
Eownes, Caleb, character of, 345, 346.
Lynam, Mr. a member of congress, his character, 209.

M.

Madison, Bishop, President at the college at Williamsburg, 23; occupies the chair of moral and natural philosophy, ib.; his salary, ib.
Maine, province of, demands to be erected into a separate State, 527.
Manchester, description of the village of, 14.
Manners, delineation of Virginian, 37 to 40, inclusive.
Marshall, Mr. John, the most celebrated counsellor at Richmond, account of his practice, &c. 39; his character, 61.
Maryland, State of, house robberies frequent, 281; trials by jury, 282; poor's rates levied in each county of, 285; depopulation of white people, 290; the cause assigned, ib.; fields very large, 291; the reason why, 292; political opinion of its inhabitants, 293; history of the state, 298, 299; why called Maryland, 298; its constitution, 300; its taxes, 301; qualification for a citizen, 303.
—general observations on, 355*.
—its mineralogy, 362*.
Massachusetts, religious persecutions here gave birth to the State of Rhode Island, 141; foundation of the State of Massachusetts, 151; oppression of the Europeans, 152; cause of quarrels between Indians and settlers, 153; new constitution 1780, 155; value of a dollar, ib.; qualifications of representatives, 156; freedom of religion, 157; its public schools, 162 to 165; no slaves in this commonwealth, 165; slaves, in 1778, were 18,000; blacks, in 1790, were 6,000, 166; its public debt, 167; public revenues, 168; its taxable property, ib.; divided into counties, 170; police and laws, ib.; precautions against the small-pox, ib.; influence of the clergy, ib.; attention of the legislature, 171; power of the lawyers, 172; its roads, 173; administration of the poor, 174; military establishments, ib.; general spirit of the people, 175; its exports, 177; character of its inhabitants, 214, 215, 216; account of an insurrection, 555.
Melhanek Creek, 69.
Merrimack River, 200; description of the bridge over it, ib.
Merchandize, inspection of, at Richmond, particularly tobacco, also on James River, 35; pot-ash at Katkill, 225.
Middleton, village of, 276.
Milford, account of the village of, 69; a depôt for the commodities of distant parts of the country, 83.
Military Establishment, of the United States, 619, 620;