" Brothers,

"We hope, you will make the situation of our brother, as comfortable as circumstances will admit. We hope, also, that many of your young men will be willing to be taught by him, to use the plough, the hoe, and other implements of husbandry. For we are sure, brothers, that as you take hold of such tools, as are in the hands of the white people, you will find them to be to you, like having additional hands. You will also find, that by using them, they will enable you to do many things, which, without them, cannot be performed.

Brothers,

There is one thing more, which we wish to add. The white people, in order to get their land cultivated, find it necessary, that their young men should be employed in it—and not their women. Women are less than men. They are not as strong as men. They are not as able to endure fatigue and toil as men. It is the business of our women, to be employed in our houses—to keep them clean—to sew—knit—spin—and E
