

weather, they were put pine isles, most likely considerable privations, secured their liberty to port in the East Indies, they were separated—erty, being aboard the y left ashore friendless situation, and being at ent fever, and died in these important Trials.

y to offer bare reports, therring together from and information tende to posterity the real ls were going on, such but too easy to make ked, and their designs of their motives, it is bigots; and their dey to have been the sal-tism.

At. forms the third of the e Editor to recover certain These documents have now so that no further delay will in a few days. It will be the Trial.