

CHAPTER IX.

Capt. Porter, with his ships, puts in at Nooaheevah to overhaul—Brief notice of the Essex and her service—The New Zealander, with oil despatched for America—Fort built at Nooaheevah and Lieut. Gamble put in command—The Essex and Essex Junior depart for the coast of South America—Arrival of the British ships Phœbe and Cherub, while anchored at Valparaiso—Putting out to sea, the Essex is struck by a squall—She regains the port—Attack on the Essex by the Phœbe and Cherub—Surrender of the Essex—The Essex Junior proceeds to America as a cartel—Fate of the party left at Nooaheevah. Page 87.

CHAPTER X.

Imperfect condition of certain ships of the navy—Equipment of the Constellation—she is blockaded by a British fleet at Hampton Roads—Skilful preparations for her defence, by Capt. Stewart—Compliment paid him by the British officers—He is transferred to the Constitution—Cruise of the Chesapeake, Capt. Evans—she captures four merchantmen—Change in the policy of the enemy with regard to the eastern states—Contemplated cruise of the Chesapeake, Capt. Lawrence—Disaffection among her crew—Her action with and capture by the British ship Shannon—Death of Capt. Lawrence—Sketch of his life. 98.

CHAPTER XI.

The Vixen, Capt. Reed, is captured by the Southampton—Both vessels are soon after wrecked—Cruise of the Siren, Captain Parker—Death and notice of Capt. P.—The Siren, Lieut. Nicholson, is captured by the Medway—The Enterprise, Lieut. Blakely, captures the privateer Fly—Under Lieut. Comdt. Burrows, her action with and capture of the British brig Boxer—Commanders of both ships are killed—Notice of Lieut. B.—Under Lieut. Renshaw, the Enterprise captures the British privateer Mars—Capture of the Rattlesnake, Lieut. Comdt. Renshaw, by the Leander. 107.

CHAPTER XII.

Six new sloops of war added to the navy—Cruise of the Argus, Capt. Allen, on the coast of England, and Ireland—she captures twenty sail of merchantmen—Her action with and capture by the Pelican—Death of Capt. Allen—sketch of his life—The Enterprise—summary of her services. 112.

CHAPTER XIII.

Attack on the British ship Narcissus, by the gun-boats in Hampton Roads—Attack on Craney Island—Notice of Mr. Sigourney, killed on board the Asp—Blockade of the United States, Macedonian, and Hornet—Capture of the American brig Viper, Lieut. Henley—Loss of the schooner Ferret, Lieut. Kearny—Attack on the Alligator, sailing-master Basset—she beats off her assailants—Mr. Basset is promoted—The Alligator is sunk in a gale on the coast of Georgia—Loss of all but sixteen of her crew—She is afterwards raised—Exploits of Capt. Kearny—Notice of his services—Gallant defence of gun-boat No. 160, by sailing-master Paine—his promotion—Warfare in the Delaware—Capture of gun-boat No. 121, by the enemy's ships Junon and Martin. 116

CHAPTER XIV.

Launch of the Guerriere, Independence, and Java—Capture of the Frolic, Capt. Bainbridge, by the frigate Orpheus—The Adams cut down and lengthened—her cruise under Capt. Morris—she captures the Woodbridge—is burnt at Penobscot—Cruise of the Wasp, Capt. Blakely—she captures the Reindeer—cuts out a vessel with military stores—her action with and destruction of the Avon—she captures the brigs Three Brothers, Bacchus, and Attalanta—her uncertain fate—Notice of Capt. Blakely—The Peacock, Capt. Warrington, captures the Epervier—she cruises in the enemy's seas, and captures fourteen merchantmen—Capture of the Highflyer by the President, Com. Rodgers. 123.

CHAPTER XV.

Capt. Barney's flotilla in the Chesapeake—Skirmishes with the enemy—Advance of the enemy upon Washington City—Defensive movements—Captains Barney and Miller wounded and taken prisoners—Vessels destroyed, and city taken—Attack on Baltimore—Death of Gen. Ross—Retreat of the enemy—Failure of the attack by water—Exchange of Capt. Barney—Sketch of his life. 133

The ener
Orlean
tance d
after a Keane-Patters
distingt

British an
on Sack
ment of
—Upper
by Lieu reach B
der the l and Gro
of Lieut.
Marvelo

The new st
Isle—La
Chauncey
of the scl stroyed—
frontier b

The enemy
Sackett's
tions in th
Plattsburg enemy on Ineffectua
—Capture

Meeting and Sackett's F
of the ener ron haul of rations.

Operations on the bar at l and capture Result of t
of Capt. Pei

Operations on ness, and st
—Launch o
—Spirited t
—Blockade
Sandy Cree
boat, and de
The British blockaded in enemy out—