

sum not less than four dollars, to be applied to the orders and regulations hereinafted specified.

Every ordinary resident member shall pay quarterly, into the hands of the Treasurer, at the Board of the Society, the sum of $1.00, or such other sum as shall from time to time be judged sufficient for promoting the general purposes of the Institution.

Perpetual members shall consist of those persons entitled to admission into this Society who deposit in the funds of the charity a lump sum of forty dollars; they shall always have a right to take part in the business of this Society, and shall, with their own consent, be always eligible to its officers.

Honorary members shall consist of those persons eligible into the Society, who are passengers and sojourners, rather than resident in the city, or who being ordinary members may remove from the city, or of those whom, on account of their office and avocations, the Society shall think proper to exempt, though resident, from the duty of ordinary attendance. In either case they shall contribute to the funds of charity, a sum not less than six dollars. The admission and enrolment of members of the first description shall, as heretofore, be vested in the officers of the Society, viz., in the President, Vice-President, and Assistants. And it is to be understood that if any members of the first or second class shall become permanent residents in the city, they shall pay the same annual contribution as ordinary members, or otherwise shall cease to be members of the Society.

SECTION III.

MEETINGS OF THE SOCIETY AND ORDER OF BUSINESS.

For cultivating a mutual good understanding among the members, and for conducting the business of charity, the Society shall be assembled four times in the year,
