ROYALS TRIM US THREE STRAIGHT

Leafs Never Had Chance on Sunday, Altho Scoring Four in Ninth.

MONTREAL, July 25.—Bill Clymer's Toron to Leafs left Montreal tonight, mighty thankful to get away. In three games of their last series of the season Toronto Leafs left Montreal tonight, mighty thankful to get away. In three games of their last series of the season here the Leafs failed to capturde a single combat, dropping the final clash this afternoon by a score of 10 to 7. The Leafs happened to town just as the Royals were emerging from a hitting slump and for the third successive time were buried today under an avalanche of hits. Jack Flynn, the demon batsman of the series, poled out his fourth home run of the series this afternoon, and Paul Smith _contributed another four-sack slam. Fred Herbert stuck to the mound to the finish for the Leafs, for his teammates were able in the early going to touch up Leon Cadore's offerings quite freely. The Leafs made a big raily in the ninth, when Cadore eased up with a seven-run lead. With one out, Gilbert, Rath, Graham, Williams and Daley all singled in a row, which, with Smith's bloomer on Kocher's fly, netted four runs and gave the fans a scare. Cather had fanned, and Howley got under Wares' high foul to end the game.

The Royals took a two-run lead in the opening frame when Nash and Irelan singled. Whiteman sacrificed, and Flynn singled, scoring both. It looked like a big local inning, for Herbert passed Almedda and Smith blocked the corners by beating out a bunt. Holden struck out, however, and Howley, the demon batsman of Saturday, rolled to the box.

The Leafs got a run in the second on Daley's double and Wares' single.

The Royals added a pair in the fourth when Smith lined a homer to deep centre after Almelda had singled. The Leafs pulled up in the fourth with a pair. Kocher was hit, Wares singled and Herbert sent them in with a double. That was the last scoring for the Leafs until their ninth inning rally, while the Royals got three in the fourth when Flynn sammed out a long home run after Nash and Irelan had singled. The Royals hit consistently thru the sixth, seventh and eighth, adding a tally in each of these seasons. The score:

Royals Had Five Homers Against Us Saturday

MONTREAL, July 25.—The Leafs made the worst showing of their many bad performances of the tour in the Saturday game here. Score, 15 to 6. The Royals hammered Manning for keeps until he was chased in the third, and then Cook took "his" after doing fair duty for three innings. The homesters had a field day with home runs, five altogether, two each by Howley and Irelan, and one by Flynn. The crowd had great fungt the expense of Manager Clymer. The score.

Motordrome Results

Once more the growing popularity of motorcycle racing was evidenced on Saturday night when a crowd approaching close on five thousand assembled at the Motorfrome Motordrome.

The evening's program was a most seductive one, and with the exception of the absence of Carslake, whose machine was for the nonce out of order, it proved all it was expected to be. Jimmy Mac-Neal was in his best form, and in a special two-mile trial with his Excelsior, he succeeded in breaking the record for the "Drome," completing the distance in 1.15 4-5, the previous best being 1.18 2-5. He traveled at the rate of 95 miles per hour, or fully one mile and a half a minute.

MacNeal also succeeded in winning the semi-final and final heats for the Grand Prize of Toronto, and in a ten-mile handicap, in which he gave all his opponents a start of two laps, he finished the winner by over a lap in the excellent time of 6.29. Carlotto Francesco, the Italian, was billed to also take part in this event from scratch, but he elected to let MacNeal, who had proved the champion of the evening, have the full honors. Following are the complete results of the meeting:
