

- taken for bonteboks, 38; considered as a faded bontebok, 40
See Stater, Lie, by Professor Keane, 331
 Bontebok, description of a, 30; blesbok mistaken for, 38
 Borth, a variety of rhinoceros, 183
 Botletlic river, buffaloes and tse-tse flies plentiful on the, 1878, 153
 Bradshaw, Dr. B. F., on tse-tse flies, 155, 160
 Bruce, Lieutenant Colonel, in Zululand, his remarks on the tse-tse fly, 160
 Bryden, H. A., on the giraffe's absence of voice, 211
 Buffalo, Cape, scarcity of the, 131; plentiful in 1873, 132; divers opinions on the dangers of hunting the, 137; description of a, 145
 Buffaloes, coloration of, 43; hunted by wild dogs, 120; where still found, 130; numbers of, killed by the author, 138; ways of hunted and wounded, 140; colour of their calves, 145; elephants' courtesy towards, 147; and tse-tse flies, 140; destruction of, 1872, 152; feeding in herds, 303
 Bulawayo, in Matabeleland, 80; Enduna of, a dignity in Matabeleland, 94
 Burchell's zebra. See Zebras
 Bushbuck, coloration of, 31; male, darker than female, 33; scarce where inyalas are plentiful, 248
 Bushmen, keen sight of, 19; lions killed with poisoned arrows by, 94; description of, 1872, 329; language of, 333, 335; piquety, 337; mode of life of, 340; privations suffered by, 342; character of, 344; affectionate towards their children, 347; only primitive race in South Africa, 348
 Bush-pigs, 300
 Butterflies, African, 7
 Buzi river, 225
Bystander, the, on the giraffe, 28
 Campbell, John, missionary in Southern Bechuanaland, 1845, 136
 Cape Colony, bushbucks found in, 31
 Caravans charged by rhinoceroses, 193
 Caribou, colouring of the, 9, 11; unconscious of human beings' presence, 16
 Cattle, demeanour of, in the proximity of lions, 95; "God's cattle," native name of buffaloes, 146; "fly-stuck," 160; symptoms of "fly-stuck," 171; sometimes recover from the sting of the tse-tse fly, 172; sufferings of, in hot weather, in the desert of South Africa, 315; instinct of, after water, 322
 Chapman, his opinion on the kettloa rhinoceros, 183
 Chetahs, curious running and crouching of, 125 ff.; swiftness of Indian, 128
 Chobi river, bushbucks found near, 32; Collison hunting buffaloes near the, 143; buffaloes plentiful near, 145; tse-tse flies along the, 154, 157; free from tse-tse flies, 105
 Christmas, heat in South Africa at the time of, 314
 Classification of lions, 78
 Clothing of a South-African hunter, 139
 Coal-mine at Wankies, 103
 Coke's hartebeest. See Hartebeest
 Codesberg, in Cape Colony, 81
 Collison, H. C., and the wild dogs, 123; hunting buffaloes, 1879, at Thukani, 313
 Colour of wild animals, xiii, xvi, 11; the author's opinion on the, 4; Wallace's opinion on the, 9; different, in the same regions, 12; of lions' eyes, 73; of buffalo calves, 145
 Columbia, Northern British, 11
 Coolies, Uganda Railway, killed by man-eaters, 49
 Cooper, Frank, and the chetah, 127
 Costello, Mr., trap made by, to catch a man-eater, 52
 Cougar, President Roosevelt's experience when hunting a, xvii
 Crocodiles, rhinoceros killed by, 201
 Cross, Alfred, his adventure with a lion, 45
 Cubs, differences between lions', 77; usual number of a lioness's, 87; chetah, reared by a she-dog, 129
 Cumming, Gordon, his book on African hunting, 47; on the black rhinoceros, 183, 194
 Daka, 154
 Damaraland, Anderson hunting in, 184
 Darwin, his opinion on the coloration of birds, 3
 Darwin, Mount, buffaloes near, 135