14 To the Clergy and Inhabitants of the

let People once more know, (what feems to be almost forgotten) that Laws are made for the Punishment of Wickedness and Vice, and for the Maintenance of true Religion.

GOVERNMENT is a great Truft, and the Powers of it are not intended merely to do Honour to those who have them, but must be used for the Good of the Community. This is a Truth fufficiently known, it has been founded in the Ears of the Nation, without Ceafing; but the Misfortune is, that this Doctrine has been applied fo conftantly to the Supreme Magistrate only, that those who have fubordinate Powers derived from his Authority, forget, or are not accustomed, to make the Application to themfelves. And yet furely, there is not a Constable but has, in Proportion to the Power the Law gives him, a Trust reposed in him in Behalf of his King and his Country: Those who are in higher Offices, have ftill greater Reafon, as more depends upon the due Exercife of their Authority, to be watchful for the Community. The Good of Society must be influenced by their Conduct and Example, one Way or other. Great Officers of Justice cannot be useles, without being pernicious.

IF a Regard for the Publick is not a Motive ftrongenough, in this Cafe, let every Magistrate confider that there is another of infinite Importance to himself; for if all Power be the Ordinance of God, He will undoubtedly
