

Messrs. Currier & Merrill, about two miles from P. B'ngs, Richmond Road (Macadamized).—150 acres, at $75 for whole, or in lots from $75 to $600 per acre.

N. Sparks, J. D. Slater, and A. Wright.—A large number of lots, within limits of city, and a large tract of land bordering on the limits, procurable at reasonable prices.

The Wright's Estates.—A large tract of land in and adjoining the Village of Hull, in C. E., opposite side of river, connected with City of Ottawa by suspension bridge, 35 min. from Parliament Buildings.

Mrs. W. Stewart.—200 acres adjoining city limits, procurable at reasonable prices.

The foregoing are merely the more prominent blocks of land and lots for sale; there are others too numerous to mention.

Estate of late H. and Thos. Mackay.—A large tract of land, adjoining the city limits, on east side of Rideau River, within from one half to two miles from Parliament Buildings, comprising most eligible building lots, procurable at reasonable rates.

M. K. DICKINSON,

On behalf of the Deputation.

Ottawa, 23rd Jan., 1864.
