

	PAGES
Secondly: England interested in maintaining the independence of every other country	88-89
Thirdly: No State ought to possess irresistible military power	89-90
Fourthly: England ought to wage war with French Empire as being opposed to principle of nationalism	90
Fifthly: Desirable to create new balance of power	90-92
Summary of Wordsworth's statesmanship	92-93

CHAPTER V

QUESTIONS AS TO THE STATESMANSHIP OF WORDSWORTH

First Question: What was the immediate effect of the statesmanship of Wordsworth?	94-115
Second Question: Has the statesmanship of Wordsworth been justified by events?	94-95
Third Question: Why was Wordsworth not recognized as the earliest of English Nationalists?	95-100
Fourth Question: How far did Wordsworth anticipate possible evils of nationalism?	100-102
Nationalism and unity	102-103
Nationalism and passion for national power	102-103
Fifth Question: Was Wordsworth guilty of political apostasy?	103-104
Preliminary considerations	104-115
Wordsworth not actuated by fear or self-interest	105-107
Changes produced by old age	105
Our question involves two different inquiries:	105-107
i. Did Wordsworth desert the Whigs?	107-109
ii. Did Wordsworth become indifferent to Nationalism?	110-115

CHAPTER VI

THE LESSONS FOR THE PRESENT WAR OF WORDSWORTH'S STATESMANSHIP

i. England needs self-discipline	116-134
ii. England must respect Nationalism	117-119
iii. England must employ means of liberty and virtue for the ends of liberty and virtue	119-121
iv. Englishmen must fulfil the duty of hope	121-127
v. England must reject any peace which does not give complete victory	127-129
	129-134