The Pageant of the Bride

Takes Place in the Jubilee Auditorium, Main Floor, Furniture Building.

With sweeping, be-hooped skirts, the ribbons, flowers, and all the fuss and excitement of the lovely old-time ceremony of 50 years ago—the Pageant of the Bride begins with a daguerreotype—plush lined, full of sweet memories, happy by-gone days, lavender, and romance. It finishes with a bridal procession that breathes all the vivacity, the gayety, the youth, hopes, and future of the wedding of today.

Tickets are available at the Pageant of the Bridal Bureau, Third Floor. The hours are 10 a.m. and 2.30 p.m. each day. Saturday morning, 9.30 o'clock. The Pageant develops into a delightful promenade of the new fashions for summer, showing particularly the new outing apparel, both for sports and street wear.

In connection with the Pageant of the Bride the services of the Hostess are at the disposal of all those who are desirous of information as to the correct or accepted customs on such occasions. For suggestions as to the announcement, the reception, the arrangement of tables, the new housekeeping necessities, etc., consult the Hostess in the Bungalow, Fourth Floor.
