No one mind can judge automobile merits, nor discern about any car, or any array of cars. Therefore, when you buy, do your buying where you have the widest choice available under a single warranty of Quality-and where that warranty rests upon nothing less than the critical, unbiased judgment of experts who have considered each car in the offered variety solely upon a basis of mechanical merit and dollar-for-dollar value. When you buy an automobile from such a concern, you buy certainty. True, you depend upon the judgment of experts of automobile specialists, instead of solely upon your own judgment. Club desiring to join, if they have not already done so, are asked to forward their applications to the secretary, F. S. Wood, 19 Olive-avenue, and have two representatives at the meeting, which promises to be of a more than usually interesting nature as the question of the admission of members who, under certain conditions, are to be allowed to play in both learners.

An Owen Sound despatch says: There is every possibility that Fred Loukes of Meaford will locate here this summer, Loukes, besides being a crack goalkeeper in football, is said to be a fast home man in lacrosse. He is at present attending Dental College in Toronto and has prestically bers who, under certain conditions, are to be allowed to play in both leagues, will come up for discussion.

The prospects are that next season the league will be stronger than ever, as already six new applications for membership have been received. If convenient, the league fixtures may be arranged at this meeting, so representatives should come prepared.

The Toronto Lacrosse League will be larger than ever this year, is the verdict of the genial secretary, Bobby Graham.

The Mohawks of the Toronto Lacrosse League, juvenile series are going to reorganize, and will about land near the top.
