Topical News From Dineens'.

Ladysmith, Mafeking, Kimberley and Dineens' are the great centres of interest most generally discussed each day in connection with fresh encounters with Boers and new fashions in hats. The arrival of reinforcements for the gallant British garrisons in Africa on Saturday was colucted with the arrival, at Dineens', of a large, special importation of the new soft felt "Volunteer" hats. They are the very newest London shapes. The prices are $2.50 and $3, and they are shown in six distinctly different shades of brown, at Dineen's, corner Temperance and Yongestreets.
