

"In the afternoon a communion service was held, to which all former members of the congregation and Christian friends were invited. A large number sat down at the Lord's table, and the children of the congregation sat in the gallery. The Pastor, Dr. Mackay, presided, Dr. Wells addressed the worshippers before the Communion, and Dr. MacVicar addressed them after the Communion. In the evening, Dr. Wells preached from 2 Kings, 2: 14., "Where is the Lord God of Elijah?"

"On Wednesday evening, May thirtieth, a Social meeting was held in the Lecture Hall, which was tastefully decorated. Dr. MacVicar, Dr. Wells, and Dr. Mackay addressed the meeting. A portion of Psalm 136 (Hymn 11 of "Church Praise"), Psalm 124, 2nd version, and Hymn 195 "Church Praise," were sung with much feeling by the large audience. We seemed compassed about by the great cloud of witnesses as we sang,—

"For all the saints who from their labours rest,
Who thee by faith before the world confessed,
Thy name O Jesus be for ever blessed,
Hallelujah."

"On Sabbath, June third, a gathering of Sabbath School children was held in the church. The scholars from Nazareth Street were present, as well as those of the Central School. In the absence from the city of the Superintendent of Crescent Street Sabbath School, Mr. John G. Savage, the Honorary Superintendent, Mr. David Morrice, presided, and gave some reminiscences of his connection with the School, of which he had been Superintendent for twenty-five years. Mr. James Ross, Superintendent of Nazareth Street School for thirty-four years, Dr. MacVicar, and Dr. Mackay, also addressed the children.

"At the present date there are still five on our Communion Roll who have been connected with the congregation from the beginning, viz., Mr. Archibald McGoun, senior Session Clerk, Mr. David Cameron, Elder, and Mrs. John Redpath, Mrs. Robert Dalgleish, and Mr. Joseph Millen, members. In looking back on the past, and going forward into the future, we thank God and take courage, feeling constrained to raise the song of the Psalmist as he reviews the history of Israel, "O give thanks unto the Lord for He is good, for His mercy endureth for ever."

In addition to those given above as connected with the congregation from the beginning, Mr. Joseph Martin may
