G. Adams of Brantford and R. Rumble of Barrie Tied For Senior Individual Championship - Moody of St. Thomas C. I. Carries Off Lower School Shield-Meet Huge Success.

Sarnia Collegiate Institute carried off both track team championships, lower and upper school, at the first annual interscholastic meet of Western Ontario, held aa Queen's Park yesterday. G. Adams of Brantford, and Rumble of Barrie, with 16 points each, were tied for the individual championshp in the upper school, while Moody of St. homas Collegiate carfied off the lower school honors. Fine Organization

The organization of the meet was such that the bg list of events with 282 boys entered, ran off like clockwork, and the big crowd out to see the meet were able to follow every event with the new scoring system, and from the score board, which was one of the novelties of the meet. The undertaking, though a tremendous one to consider, not only attained its object of setting up track competitions between the schools of Western Ontario, but as well brought out in its very first ven-ture, some splendid and coming ath-

No records were broken, but some creditable time and distances were made in the different events in both the classes. Sarnia piled up 18 and 17 point totals to win.

The band of the First W. A. R. Bath tallon played throughout the afternoon.
In the organization of the meet, the work of Secretary Mel Brock cannot be overlooked, and to a large extent its GUELPH, May 24.—Brantford United success is due to his energetic super-soccer team went down to defeat before vision. The officials of the meet were: Referee-Norton H. Crow, A. A. U
