(Special Correspond Have you looked at the late crop reports of Western Canada? They certain ly prove that for the man who wants to own a farm or wants to own anothe farm, the Province of Saskatchewan i the land for golden opportunity to-day Whether he has a few hundreds o many thousands to invest, the return he gets for his money in this greatertile empire are the most alluring imaginable.

And the farmers and land buyers of the States are hearing the call this autumn as never before. Railroads—growing cities with their markets only a short distance from any point—practically all the advantages of older communities—and, above all, the possibility of getting the richest farms at about one-fourth the cost at home, are taking buyers by the hundred thousand. The world has never seen such a movement. It will not last long. For the price of land in Saskatchewan is on a rising market and will at no distant date be quote dat $30, $40 and $50 an acre, where now $12 to $15 rules.

Premier Roblin's Reply.

Premier Roblin's reply to Mr. Macdonald, as published in The News, reads:

From Our Own Correspondent.

Peterboro, Sept. 25.—Hon. R. P. Roblin, premier of Manitoba, made the following statement this morning:

"The signed statement by the editorin-chief of The Globe in this morning's in-chief of that paper conversing myself. in-chief of The Globe in this morning's issue of that paper concerning myself and the charges made by me regarding the Crow's Nest Pass coal mines requires a further reference by me. Mr. Macdonald sets up two pleas of defence, an alibi and ignorance or no knowledge as to the facts that I allege. As to his alibi, that is the defence set up by all offenders who confence set up by all offenders who can-not offer anything else to the court in defence of their indictment. As to his want of knowledge—here Mr. Robhis want of knowledge—here Mr. Roblin told the story of the negro who on appearing for the hundredth time in police court, was greeted by the magistrate with: 'Well, John, I don't know what to do with you,' to which the prisoner replied: 'Jedge, I *ain't responsible for your ignorance,'—I repeat every word I said in my Toronto speech, and I do so because it is in a matter of public interest and refers to the public domain.

the public domain.

"Mr. Macdonald charges me with maladministration of the public domain of Manitoba, a proper charge if he has warrant or justification on which to base such a statement. I repeat again this challenge, that any man that The Globe newspaper can name from Sir Wilfrid down shall have access to every department, every book, every voucher, that has reference direct or indirect to the charges made on condition that I shall have the right to name a man who shall have the same right to examine every paper, every record, government or otherwise, at Ottawa or elsewhere, which has reference to the Crow's Nest Pass Railway deal.

"In connection with that I charge that The Globe chloroformed public opinion in Canada in order that the government of Sir Wilfrid Laurier might take $2,000,000 additional out of the public treasury over and above what was necessary to secure the con-struction of the Crow's Nest Pass Rail-
