SAYS BALLOONISTS IN PITIABLE STATE AT MOOSE FACTORY

Eye-Witness Declares One Day More Would Have Killed Them.

EXCITED IN COCHRANE

Cochrane, Ont., Jan. 7-(By Canadian Press) .- The small army of newspaper correspondents, basing their movements on headquarters here at Cochrane, while combing this section of the Dominion of Canada as far as is possible for news of the three American balloonists making their way thru the northern Ontario bush from were still pursuing a policy of watch-lul waiting this evening. Up to a late hour today absolutely no news of the proximity of the naval officers and their escort to the Canadian National Railway west of here had been receivtown, altho the journalists with most of the resident population are all keyed up with scarcely repressed excitement. All indications tonight pointed to the eagerly sought news becoming at the earliest a Monday

446 wounded in Ireland in 1920 as a result of what are described in an official report "as serious outrages." These figures do not include eightytwo civilians who died as a result of the riots in Ulster from June to The casualties are divided as follows:

Policemen killed, 165; wounded, 225; soldiers killed, 53; wounded, 118; civil'ans killed-death said to have been due to Sinn Feiners-43; wound-

The report says the number of court houses destroyed was 68: Royal Irish Constabulary barracks destroyed; 530, and damaged, 163; raids on mails aggregated 998; raids on coast-guard stations and lighthouses numbered 46; raids for arms aggregated 2,801, and raids on revenue offices

Minor outrages are not included in the report. New York, Jan. 7.—The British Library of Information, an official British organization with headquarters in this city, today issued a statement giving statistics on "outrages committed in Ireland." For the two weeks ending January 1, 1921, the statement placed the number of police officers killed in Ireland as six, and the number wounded at twelve. During the same period four British soldiers were wounded.

Evidence given last night at the inquest on Fred. Bonniwell, the youth who was fatally shot in front of William Morrison's house at 243 Niagara street during a New Year's celebration, was of so conflicting a nature that Chief Coroner A. J. Johnson intimated steps would be taken against certain of the witnesses.
Following the adjournment of the inquest until January 14, Dr. Johnson said to The World, "As soon as this inquest is concluded, I intend to bring the matter of perjury before the de-partment. The stories told by some of the witnesses are not satisfactory." It is reported that Sam. Leoni, the Italian who disappeared after the shooting, is in Hamilton. He has been traced there, and it is thought that he may surrender himself.
