NOGI'S VETERANS AT GATES BURDEN SIGNS AND SOUNDS OF MOVING PREVAIL JAPS TURN RUSSIANS' RIGHT FLANK

Necessary Now For Kuropatkin to Beat Hasty Retreat to Tie Pass, But He Will Not Find It a Path. Way of Roses.

Reports from Japanese sources claim that the Russian right flank, south-west and south of Mukden, and contiguous to the railway, has been completely turned by the Japanese forces under the immediate command of Gen. Oku. To the eastward Gen. Kuroki is directing a vigorous attack, with heavy artillery against strongly fortified Russian positions. Gen. Kuropatkin is said to be concentrating a strong force in front of Gens. Kuroki and Nogi.

It still seems probable that Gen. Kuropatkin will find it necessary to retreat to the Pass, which appears to be a necessary movement. St. Petersburg has word that affairs lately have taken a turn for the better for Russian arms, and the tactics of Field Marshal Oyama in an attack on an impregnable position in the centre as a mere diversion, while the real blows were being struck on the flanks, is criticized by Russian military officers.

ON TO MUKDEN.

Mukden, March 5.—The rumble of carts in the streets of Mukden is again heard, and the city is again being shelled from the north-west. The Japanese are again pressing on to Mukden. The Russian position is being shelled from the north-west. The Japanese are again pressing on to Mukden.

THE JAPANESE VANGUARD POSTS ARE ABOUT SIX MILES WEST OF MUKDEN, WHERE THE BURSTING OF SHRAPNEL IS PLAINLY VISIBLE. A fight also is raging at Sushodajun and is being fought along the Shimintun road, but heavy fighting is continuing there.

HEAVY ARTILLERY DUEL. THE JAPANESE AND RUSSIAN ARTILLERY ARE ENGAGED IN THE HEAVIEST DUEL OF THE WAR. Russian mortars are fired at the Shakhe Bridge, and Japanese 11 inch guns are in full play, but the Russian fortifications, on which they had been working all winter, offer a fairly secure protection for their defenders.

THE JAPANESE AT THE EXTREME END OF THE LINE. THE RUSSIANS ARE HOLDING THEIR GROUND, AND EVEN ADVANCING IN SOME PLACES.

AT THE VERY GATES.

The net result of the fighting in the far east for the past two days is a material advance by Generals Oku, Kuroki and Nogi. Nogi's Port Arthur veterans are at the very gates of the City of Mukden, and sounds of moving mingle with those of battle. The Japs have lost heavily, but they are pressing on till now they are within a few miles of the Russian winter quarters.

In the despatches from the Manchurian battlefield there is much that is improbable, and some stories that must be untrue. The correspondents who are telegraphing from points northeast and west of the fighting lines undoubtedly are handicapped in obtaining fairly accurate information, and have no time to investigate the reliability of certain news coming to them from the battle grounds.

THE PRESENT POSITION IS THAT GENERAL KUROKI ON THE EAST AND GENERAL OKU ON THE WEST ARE EXECUTING TWO WIDENING FLANKING MOVEMENTS, WITH SEVERE FIGHTING ATTENDING EVERY ADVANCE MADE.

REPORTS THAT HE IS DRIVING THE ENEMY BEFORE HIM, THO WITH GREAT LOSSES

St. Petersburg, March 5.—Gen. Birevia telegraphs from Mukden that a determined fight occurred seven days ago (twelve miles west of Mukden). He confirms the report that the Japanese have occupied Shintung, which is forty miles west of Mukden.

Gen. Kuropatkin is driving the enemy yesterday evening, occupying Gaotuling (Kaotai Pass, where Gen. Linevich was in command). He says that the Japanese lost enormously in the fighting on the Russian left.

Gen. Kuropatkin reports that the Russian left flank is being shelled from the north-west. The Japanese are again pressing on to Mukden.

Fate of Gen. Kuropatkin and His Army Depends on Result of Fight at Mukden

St. Petersburg, March 6.—(3:25 a.m.)—The fate of Gen. Kuropatkin and his army hangs in the balance today, depending on the result of the fighting almost in the outskirts of Mukden. According to latest reports this morning the fighting went well for the Russians, who beat back the wave that threatened to roll over Mukden as it had over the fortifications of Port Arthur, but nothing is known as to what is going on behind the line of breakers, whether part of Gen. Nogi's force is in full career for the Pass, or whether the Japanese have staked all in a cast against Mukden. The imminence of the peril on the west wing has withdrawn attention from the operations on the centre and left, where the fighting has been extremely heavy, and espe-

PUBLIC TO HONOR HIM IN DEATH AS IN LIFE

Funeral of E. F. Clarke This Afternoon—Remains to Lie in State in Broadway Tabernacle.

The widespread feeling of sorrow at the death of the late E. F. Clarke, and the esteem in which his memory is held, was fully attested by the long line of citizens which, during Saturday and all Sunday past, the plain black casket containing the remains. The body lay in the drawing room of his late residence on Markham-street, surrounded by banks of flowers which more than filled every available spot. At the head is a beautifully wrought crown of roses, carnations and lilies of the valley, the tribute of his sisters, Miss Jennie Clarke and Mrs. Battin. The calm, natural expression of the countenance was the subject of much remark, altho it caused many to have a presentiment that they would be unable to conceal their emotion.

Mrs. Clarke and the other members of the family, who bore up bravely under the trial, had many intimate friends among the callers, and they were glad to express as they would wish their appreciation of the many kind and sympathetic messages they received. Among the callers on Saturday were Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, solicitor-general, and F. D. Monk, M.P., and yesterday Mayor Urquhart and many other prominent citizens were among the callers.

The funeral service for the late E. F. Clarke, which was held in the Broadway Tabernacle, on Sunday, at 3 p.m., was a private service for the immediate family, which will be held at 1 o'clock, after which the body will be removed and will lie in state from 2 to 3 o'clock at the Tabernacle. The galleries will be thrown open to the public, the main floor being reserved for the official bodies and others attending the funeral. Entrance will be by the east door, and the exit by the west door. The house service will be conducted by Rev. George Orman, pastor of Emmanuel Episcopal Church, in accordance with the illness of Rev. F. TenBroeck Reynolds of the College-street Church.

The public service will also be in charge of Rev. Mr. Orman, who will be assisted by Rev. J. D. Freeman of the Blois-street Baptist Church, Rev. Dr. Potts, Rev. Dr. Gilroy of College-street, Presbyterian Church and Rev. E. N. Balfour of the Broadway Tabernacle. The music will be furnished by the choir of Christ Church, the Tabernacle and of Rehoboth Masonic Lodge.

Order of Procession. The route of the procession will be along College to St. George-street, and out to Yonge-street by way of Bloor and to Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

The honorary pall-bearers will be: Hon. Worship the Mayor, ex-Mayors Boswell, Fleming, McMurich and Schuchman, Hon. J. D. Monk, M.P., and the Toronto colleagues of the deceased in the House of Commons, A. B. Kemp, Hon. George E. Foster, E. B. Alder and A. Claude Macdonell. The active pall-bearers have been selected from the various societies which Mr. Clarke was connected with, together with some intimate personal friends.

The order of the procession will be as follows: Mounted police, County Orange, a band on foot and other societies walking, clergy, honorary bearers, active bearers, carriages with flowers, hearse, representatives of the governor-general, the senate and house of commons, the lieutenant-governor, and the local ecclesiastical, city council, official, etc.

PART OF BRAIN CUT AWAY MOTOR NERVES NOT AFFECTED

Machinist, Terribly Injured While Cleaning Emery, Presents Curious Problem for Hospital Surgeons.

With a portion of his brain removed, Joseph Adair, a machinist at the Grand Trunk shops, lies at the Emergency Hospital, in a half dead condition, as the result of an accident on Saturday afternoon. But strange to say, the parts that would be expected to be impaired by the loss of the cerebral tissue are seemingly unharmed.

Adair was cleaning the emery wheel at the close of the week's work, and in the process of cleaning the wheel he knelt beneath the shelf of the wheel and held a piece of waste against one of the parts of the wheel. In some way his hand caught in the belt, and in an instant his left arm had been pulled into the machinery. His body was pulled forward and the right side of his head struck with terrific force on a nut in the machine.

His companions extricated him to the hospital, where he was taken to the Emergency Hospital, and it was found that the brain of the motor area were literally dashed out and protruded from the circular hole in his head. Several bones were removed and the protruding portions of brain cut away.

Adair has been unconscious ever since and his condition is so serious that it is impossible for him to live. Strangely enough, the body muscles do not seem to be affected by the removal of the part of the brain that directs them.

Adair is a married man with three children and lives on Crawford-street.

CHURCH GIVEN UPPER HAND CRUSHES HOME AND STATE

Pastor of Hon. Clifford Sifton's Ottawa Church Objects to Statesmen Becoming Hierarchy Puppets.

Ottawa, March 5.—(Special.)—A vehement denunciation of the separate school clauses in the Laurier autonomy bill was made this evening by Rev. George F. Sallon, pastor of the Dominion Methodist Church, and recently of the Centenary Methodist Church, Hamilton.

"True patriotism," he said, "is secured when the home, the church and the state are all on the same level, and when this equality is disturbed, trouble is bound to follow. When the church is raised above the home and state, there is a clergy tyranny which is as bad as a church at all. Let the church predominate and all over the country will raise monasteries and nunneries, and the ten dollar hotel supports the ten million dollar Basilio. Let the church have the upper hand and it will crush both the home and the state, and the curse of home."

"Right in Ottawa you can see the church is raised above the home and state, where a ten million dollar Basilio throws a shadow on a ten dollar hotel, and the ten dollar hotel supports the ten million dollar Basilio. Let the church have the upper hand and it will crush both the home and the state, and the curse of home."
