GREGORY COLLECTED BIG SUMS AS HIS COMMISSION

Apparently the Ex-Marine Department Agent at Quebec Had His Hand Always Out For the Money—Several Merchants Tell of Payments To Him.

Quebec, Nov. 13.—At the marine inquiry this afternoon, the examination of James Holiday as well as his clerk, Mr. Payne, was proceeded with. These witnesses, as well as Geo. Tanguay, provision merchant, Mr. Hall, lumber merchant, and Parent, hardware merchant, denied having paid commissions to Mr. Gregory or any of the officials of the department.

PLAN FOR WARD TEMPERANCE WILL BE WIDER THAN AT FIRST

Temperance Workers May Seek Prohibition in Sydney, Victoria and Lorne Wards as Well as Dukes.

The prospect that a no-license campaign will be carried on in Sydney and perhaps Victoria and Lorne wards was regarded as much more favorable by temperance workers when the reports from Dukes ward came in last night. Those who were going through that ward with petitions met in conference last evening at St. David's school room. The reports showed that while only part of the ward had been covered this week, the signatures of almost all of the required twenty-five per cent. to call for a vote on the license question in the ward had already been secured.

MARINE NOTES

Schr. Princess, Capt. John Ryan, has gone into winter quarters at Brighton, St. Mary's Bay.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

Your worn-out carpets make beautiful rugs—The Maritime Rug Works, 222 Main street, clean carpets.

Now is the time to buy your winter garments clean. Uglar's method of dry cleaning clothes with new duds. Main street.

When you are ready to buy a good suit or overcoat it will be wise to investigate what special advantages Pidgeon's North End Store is offering.

Don't forget the date of the musical and literary concert in Brunsell Street Church, Friday evening, November 20th. The event of the week.

These are busy days at the J. N. Harvey clothing, hat and furnishing stores in the Opera House block. Overcoats, heavy suits, gloves and underwear are in great demand. In buying these lines at the Harvey stores the people take no risk as every article is personally guaranteed by J. N. Harvey, read his advertisement on page 7.

F. W. Daniel Co., Charlotte street, have been fortunate in receiving a large lot of new all-wool delaines and challies at a great bargain to clear the line, and they intend putting these on sale to-night and Monday at a price that will make every yard a bargain. Challies are greatly in demand for house dresses, waists, etc., as they never crust or look mussed and will wash like cottons. See advertisement on page five.
