Charge Made Against Wallace Stevens of North End

Wallace Stevens, of North End, was before Magistrate Ritchie this morning on charge of selling liquor without a license, under the New Brunswick Prohibition Act, in his beer saloon in Main street on or about July 12. The charge was laid as a result of the activity of Inspector Crawford and the local police.

LITTLE INTEREST IN ELECTION FOR REPEAL OF THE SCOTT ACT

Fredericton, N. B., Aug. 15.—E. J. Kingsley, paymaster of the Canadian Cottons, Ltd., mill at Maryville, returned here last night, after having accompanied by his two brothers, left on Tuesday on a motor tour to the United States.

Very little interest appears to be taken in the election today on the question of the repeal of the Canada Temperance Act. The members of the Dominion Alliance were much pleased with the vote against the Canada Temperance Act in Senbury yesterday.

CONSCIENTIOUS OBJECTOR ARRESTED BY U. S. AGENTS

Aaron Spielman, aged twenty-seven, of Boston, said to be the first conscientious objector to be arrested in New England since selection boards began drafting men for the national army, was taken into custody Tuesday by agents of the department of justice when he refused to submit to a physical examination before one of the selection boards.

SUPERIOR MUSICAL ACT AT THE GEM

Dorva and D. Leon Make Marked Impression—Feature Picture Also Powerful

One of the best musical acts yet introduced in vaudeville in St. John held Gem patrons deeply interested and amused last night in the mid-week change of programme. There also was an excellent five reel photo play, in all making an excellent programme of entertainment.

The musical act was presented by Mme Dorva and M. DeLeon. The lady is a native of Paris. Both are musical artists of high order. Their offering is a series of grand opera selections, instrumental and vocal, and all given in a highly artistic manner. The performance features "Husband and Wife," a five reel feature starring Ethel Clayton and Holbrook Blinn, which was returned to the Gem on Saturday afternoon.

SEE THE USED CAR AUTOMOBILE SHOW

OPEN 10 A. M. TO 10 P. M. —AT THE—

ST. ANDREW'S RINK Charlotte Street

Owing to the number of automobile owners who have applied for space in which to exhibit their cars, and to the number of letters received from interested parties throughout New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, stating that it would be impossible for them to visit the show before the last of the week, arrangements have been made to keep the show open until Saturday night, August 18.

Among the large number of cars on exhibition will be found such standard makes as the Reo, Ford, Overland, McLaughlin, Stevens-Duryea, Chalmers Singer-Six, Russell, etc. All cars before being admitted to the building are inspected, and only such cars as are in good condition and reasonable in price are admitted.

DIES SUDDENLY

Staff Sergeant Harry R. Henderson Passes Away

The many friends of Staff Sergeant Harry R. Henderson, of No. 7 Company of the Army Service Corps, St. John, will be shocked to hear that he dropped dead this morning from heart trouble. Sergeant Henderson went to work this morning as usual. About ten o'clock he was returning to his quarters at the barracks. He was not feeling well, and asked to be allowed to go home. He was granted his home in Pitt street when he fell dead.

PTE. J. J. HARDING LONG TIME MISSING DECLARED DEAD

Mrs. Kathleen Harding of Long Wharf, received word this morning that her son, Private John Joseph Harding, a member of a unit of Mounted Rifles, previously reported as being believed to be killed, is now officially reported as killed in action on April 9.

FLEMMING TOLD GOULD IT WOULD BE ALL RIGHT

(Continued from page 1.) The matter was then taken up with legal lights in Montreal, and Mr. Gould said that, while the bonds were changed to suit the wishes of the government, there had always been shown consideration of the endorsement of them by the government. Time went on and finally the European war came, and Brent and Oxtan then said that they could not handle the bonds under any consideration.

PROSECUTIONS MAY RESULT

Chief Spurgeon called the attention of The Times this morning to complaints that he has received from automobile drivers and pedestrians generally regarding the conduct of some auto drivers, especially along the road from the One Mile House to Riverside and on to Rothesay and in particular to the reckless manner in which certain chauffeurs drive their cars along the narrow stretch of road beyond Torriburn. Several serious accidents have taken place, said the chief, and the complaints do not concern overspeeding so much but the chances the drivers take when traffic is congested and in rushing in between teams. The chief said that several prosecutions are likely to follow.

BURIED TODAY

The funeral of John McAuley took place this morning from his late residence, 33 Queen street, West St. John, to the Church of the Assumption, where high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. J. J. O'Donovan. Interment was made in Holy Cross cemetery.
