Pilgrimage to National Shrine to Commence From Moncton

MONCTON, June 29—The pilgrimage of the Acadian people of the Maritime Provinces to their national shrine at Grand Pre, N.S., is expected to leave this city on August 18, it was learned at railway headquarters here today. There is some doubt yet as to what form the excursion will take but in previous years a special train has been run to the land of Evangeline and an elaborate program "carried out at the church which has been erected a few feet from the famous Evangeline's well and the long row of willows originally planted by French settlers, prior to 1755, when the expulsion took place.

Another pilgrimage that usually attracts large numbers from the Maritime Provinces is that to St. Anne de Beaupre where miracles of healing are reported almost every year among the faithful who visit the shrine. The date for this pilgrimage has not been set yet. It had been thought that it would begin about the last
