

NOTABLE DAYS AT ST. PETER'S

Tuesday and Wednesday to See Special Ceremonies of Redemptorists.

Two impressive ceremonies are to be held in St. Peter's church tomorrow morning and on Wednesday morning. Tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock sixteen choir novices are to receive the habit of the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer and will then enter on their first novitiate. On Wednesday morning ten choir novices are to take the solemn vows of poverty, chastity and obedience and will become members of the Congregation.

Those entering their first novitiate are: Louis Scallion of Toronto, Henry Fleming of Hamilton, William McMullin of Montreal, Robert McKenna of Tottenham, Gordon McInnis of Toronto, Henry Donohy of Toronto, Thomas Murray and Gerard Thomas of Quebec, Michael McLane of Newfoundland, Gerard Murphy of Halifax, Lucien Hovard of St. John, Edward Doyle of Montreal, Frederick Lane and David Elivan of Regina, and Father Worcelkowski of Regina.

There will also be seven candidates for lay brothers taking the habit: Thomas Kelly, Arthur Doyle, John Coughlan, Joseph McIntyre, Patrick Timmony, Raymond Gomes and Lawrence Godin.

On Wednesday morning, which is the feast of St. Alphonsus, founder of the order, ten choir novices will take the solemn vows, one lay brother temporary vows, and one perpetual vows. The choir candidates are: James Healey of St. John, Oscar Dietz of Sedro-Wooley, Wash., Edward Boyne of Montreal, Austin McGuire of St. John, Arthur Kelly of Brandon, Thomas Mannigan of Lindsay, Clayton Kramer of Winnipeg, James Gramman of St. John, Wallace Malone of Regina, and Patrick White of Quebec.

LOCAL NEWS

MRS. HENRY THOMPSON.
The death of Mrs. Annie Thompson, widow of Henry Thompson, occurred last night. She is survived by one son, John H. Kenny, and by one daughter, Mrs. Walter Parlee, of Kings county. The funeral will take place on Wednesday morning.

STILL ALARM.
The North End firemen were called out about noon yesterday by a still alarm for a fire in a Main street house. A pot of grease had upset on the stove and set fire to the kitchen. The blaze was extinguished by the use of a chemical.

THE POWER CO.
Messrs. Bodell and Sanderson, who were in the city previously in the interests of the United States Power Company, Limited, were expected to arrive in the city today to resume negotiations relative to terms under which the city might consider taking over the entire plant.

CANNOT COME AT PRESENT.
Secretary Romanus of the Canadian Club has a letter from Rear Admiral Sims of the U. S. navy, saying that he might be able to come this way late in the year, but not in the near future. He wrote that he greatly appreciated the invitation to St. John.

ROTARY CLUB.
Dr. T. D. MacGregor addressed the Rotary Club today on Infant Welfare, dealing with the subject from the possible application of eugenics, followed by pre-natal care, and on through infant care, medical inspection and proper care in the industrial period. He showed that our infant death rate is largely due to preventable diseases and is far too high. He quoted very significant figures to prove his case in favor of a thorough system to conserve child life. Dr. MacGregor was in the chair. The club voted $25 toward an emergency fund to pay the fare of a soldier's wife and children to England, where the husband and father now is. Committees were appointed to arrange for the annual picnic for the boys of the south and east end clubs. Word was received from the American Red Cross that its visit would be postponed till September or October.

ANDERSON IN CAPITAL COURT ON OLD WARRANT
(Special to The Times)
Fredericton, N. B., July 31.—Guy Anderson was arrested late on Sunday night at his home, Woodstock road, on a warrant dated May 21, 1921, charging him with having liquor in his possession other than in his private residence. The execution of the warrant was delayed, as Anderson was away on a business trip. The warrant on which his arrest was made was sworn out the day after a liquor-laden car struck a large tree in the eastern part of Fredericton, fatal injuries to Fred Hallett of Devon, a passenger, resulting. Joseph Toner also was in the car, and made a statement that Anderson was driver of the car. This morning J. J. F. Winslow appeared as counsel for the accused, and the latter was let go on a deposit of $200 to appear before the police magistrate on Monday.

WATCH OUT AGAIN TO PREVENT FOREST FIRES.
(Special to The Times)
Fredericton, July 31.—Weather conditions are becoming more favorable to fires in the woods and the department of lands and mines is taking the necessary precautions. The green woods still are too wet to permit of rapid spread of fire but there are some sections in which fire will run. The fire on the Seavoyie, reported on last Friday, has been investigated. It covered an area of some fifteen acres and is believed to have been caused by berry pickers.

MONTREAL STOCK EXCHANGE.
Montreal, July 31.—(10:30)—The local market was active and interesting during the first half hour this morning, and several important changes in price quotations were registered. Of the papers, Albitoli appeared a quarter higher at 43 3/4. Brompton unchanged at 32 3/4 and Laurendie, the most active issue up a quarter at 87 1/4. Brazilian was one of the weaker issues, declining a point to 42 3/4, while Montreal Power, whose strength has featured the trading of the last few days, registered a drop of 1 1/4 to 95 1/2.

Fredericton, July 31.—Weather conditions are becoming more favorable to fires in the woods and the department of lands and mines is taking the necessary precautions. The green woods still are too wet to permit of rapid spread of fire but there are some sections in which fire will run. The fire on the Seavoyie, reported on last Friday, has been investigated. It covered an area of some fifteen acres and is believed to have been caused by berry pickers.
