"CONFESSION" 7 Full Reels

The Only Photo-Drama Ever Endorsed by the Catholic National Board of Censors

STORY OF THE CONFESSIONAL

The Picture You've Been Waiting For

The Walled Sanctuary

Within the sacred silence of the Roman Catholic Church are recounted the sins, transgressions and sorrows of countless thousands, and, whatever be our religion, we are bound to respect that exalted devotion which prompts a priest to hold forever inviolate the secrets of the holy "Confessional."

Tells how a priest holds to his Confessional Vows, even though his brother's life hangs in the balance.

The Most Stupendously Dramatic and Intense Story Ever Portrayed on Canvas

A tale which will interest, thrill and enthral all denominations alike. The scenic splendor of Confession would alone make it unusual.

BRYANT WASHBURN

IN HIS LATEST PARAMOUNT PICTURE

"IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE"

As the energetic "just-home-from-college" boy, who fails as his father's partner, Bryant Washburn is funnier than ever. He opens up for himself and puts on the market the famous "13 Soap—Unlucky for Dirt." His cry that it Pays to Advertise, forms the centre of one of the most original and amusing comedies the screen has ever offered.

SERIAL STORY—"THE MOONRIDERS"

THE RING.

Carpenter Away.
New York, Nov. 8.—George Carpenter who has signed a contract to meet Jack Dempsey in 1921, sailed for Havre on the steamer France on Saturday with his manager, Deschamps.

Get Man to Meet Leonard.
New York, Nov. 8.—Selection of six lightweight boxers to fight through a series of elimination bouts to decide which will meet Benny Leonard for the lightweight title here on November 26, was the subject of a conference today between Tex Rickard, promoter, and Billy Gibson, Leonard's manager. Among the possible aspirants are Lew Tendler, Willie Jackson, Johnny Dundee, Joe Welling and Ritchie Mitchell.

BASEBALL.
Stallings Resigns.
Boston, Nov. 8.—The resignation of George Stallings as manager of the Boston National League baseball team, was announced on Saturday night by Walter E. Huggins, business manager of the club. No reason was assigned, and no statement was made as to Stallings' future plans.

Ross Denies Rumor.
Montreal, Nov. 8.—J. K. L. Ross has issued a denial of the rumor that he has been negotiating for the purchase of the Syracuse franchise in the International Baseball League. Mr. Ross says he has no intention of becoming financially interested in baseball.

GOLF.
Vardon and Ray Leave.
New York, Nov. 8.—Harry Vardon and Ted Ray, British golfers, sailed for England on Saturday on the steamship Celtic. Ray won the American open championship at Toledo in August and Vardon finished in a tie for second.

BOWLING.
Post Office Wins.
In a match game played on the Y. M. C. I. alleys Saturday between teams from the Post Office and Railway Mail Clerks the former won by a pinfall of 1835 to their opponents 1199.

Y. M. C. I. Schedule.
The following games are scheduled for this week:—

Tuesday, Nov. 9.—Robins vs. Hawks. Wednesday, Nov. 10.—Owls vs. Sparrows. Thursday, Nov. 11.—Falcons vs. Crows. Friday, Nov. 12.—Swans vs. Eagles.

The games on Tuesday and Wednesday are regarded as the crucial ones of the series. The Hawks have won sixteen points and lost none. The Owls have nineteen points to their credit with a loss of one, and the Sparrows have won twelve and lost four.

AQUATIC.
Boston Issues Challenge.
Boston fishermen refuse to concede the championship of North Atlantic fishing fleet to the Esperanto of Gloucester and have issued a challenge to hold one or a series of races off Boston.

THE TURF.
Mike Daly Dead.
Baltimore, Nov. 8.—Mike Daly, noted trainer of race horses, died here on Saturday of typhoid pneumonia. While training thoroughbreds in Canada he contracted a severe cold which developed into pneumonia.

Offers $100,000 for Race.
Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 7.—Word from London is that Freeman Bernstein, a New York sportsman, who promoted the Wilde-Wallace fight in Toronto last summer, asserted he had cabled Samuel D. Riddle of this city, an offer of $100,000 to bring Man o' War to England for a race next spring.

Mr. Riddle is on a hunting trip, but his wife says she does not think a purse alone, no matter how big, would be sufficient inducement for Mr. Riddle to send the horse abroad.

Bill Sharen.
The St. Croix Courier says—Bill Sharen, 21½, a handsome chestnut stallion that was such an attraction at the races at the St. Stephen Fair, is being sought by more than one stable performing on the Grand Circuit. The horse is owned by Archie Alcorn of Blackville, who purchased him last spring from Samuel J. Boyle of Fredericton, by whom he was raised, at a price of $3,500. Last week a gentleman was in St. Stephen and offered Frank C. Murchie, who is in partnership in the lumber business with Mr. Alcorn, a certified check for $15,000 for the chestnut beauty. The offer was refused and rumor has it that the present price of the horse is $25,000, at which figure some gentlemen from the Grand Circuit are expected in Fredericton this week to look him over.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES
Frank J. James and Raymond W. Shuck, both of Camden, N. J., confessed on Saturday to the killing of David S. Paul, a Camden bank runner, and to robbing him of $10,000 in cash. The body was buried in the Jersey pines near Tabernacle. The money was buried in Evergreen cemetery in Camden and most of it has been recovered.

Edna Ellis, of St. Louis, Mo., the eighteen-year-old typist whose body was found with her throat slashed, in a vacant lot near her home on Friday, was killed by Albert Ellis, aged twenty-one, a rejected suitor, according to a confession he made to the police yesterday. The girl's mother put the police on the trail.

Agitation has been started by the Army and Navy Veterans of Manitoba to have another vote taken on the question of whether the people of the province want government dispensaries for the sale of liquor or whether the province shall remain bone-dry. Such a vote might be taken if eight per cent. of the people petition the government for it.

The inquiry into the stranding of the steamer Chama off Bechuase light in the St. Lawrence on October 21 conducted by Captain L. A. Demers, resulted in Pilot Arthur Paquette losing his license for six months. The second officer of the steamer was remanded.

J. Harry Flynn, general organizer of the G. A. U. V. has called on three thousand returned soldiers and their friends to line up in front of Massey Hall on the evening on which Premier Meighen will speak there and refuse to allow him to speak unless he first addresses the soldiers and answers the criticisms which they and the soldiers' widows have to make of the dominion government.

The auxiliary schooner Freeport which went to the assistance of the wrecked Ethel Cora at Stony Island, Shelburne county, went ashore there on Thursday night. She was successfully floated apparently undamaged.

The preliminary inquiry of William St. Pierre, charged with the murder of Minnie Stevens at Edmundston recently, has been arranged to take place this week beginning Wednesday morning. Attorney-General Byrne is expected to plead the case for the crown.

London, Eng., Nov. 8.—Because he thought the turkeys under his care were not maturing as they should, Henry Fage, a poultry keeper, hanged himself. He had held his disposition for forty years.

Will Join White Star Fleet as "Arabic"

New York, Nov. 8.—(By Canadian Press)—The purchase from the British government of the 17,324 ton ex-German steamship Berlin is announced by the International Mercantile Marine Company. It is said that the company is in the market for others of the German ships now for sale in England with which to build up the White Star fleet to its pre-war strength.

The Berlin will be added to the White Star fleet and will be named the Arabic. After reconconditioning in Great Britain, she will sail with the Canopic and Celtic from Boston and New York to the Azores, Gibraltar, Naples and Genoa.

ICE CREAM THE MOST ECONOMICAL DESSERT

It costs less than other desserts in money—and nothing in time or trouble.

It is the Ideal Dessert because it is not only itself a highly nutritious food but also, like all milk products, it carries the "unidentified something" which we now know to be necessary to make other foods available to sustain life and growth.

ICE CREAM MAKES AN IDEAL LIGHT LUNCH.
It will take the place of Meat.
It is Cooling. It is Refreshing. It is Stimulating.
