MYSTERY

The first part concludes with Carter's illusion, "THE MAGICAL DIVORCE," which is literally and metaphorically "Out of Sight." A novel conceit, in which a human being is made to instantly vanish.
ACRYSTAL CASKET OF CREATION, or A MAGICIAN'S INCUBATOR

PART II
—A WEIRD SEANCE FROM SIMLA, or THE MYSTERIES OF THE YOGI, in which the pet theories of the Theosophists and Spiritualists are exploited. "Can such things be and overcome us like a summer cloud?"

—CORINNE CARTER who unfolds a chapter from the supernatural, in an Exhibition of Thought Transference or Mental Telepathy, the result of years of study.

—CARTER impersonating the great Chinese magicians; introducing a number of marvelous peculiar Oriental, among which is the production of a huge bowl of water weighing one hundred and sixteen pounds.

—FLYTO, an Oriental Conceit, in which the Mahattrams' idea of the propulsion of the astral body is spectacularly illustrated.

Dr. Wm. B. Carpenter
"My mind made up as to the reality of these phenomena."

Lord Byron—"I merely mean to say what Johnson said—that in the course of some six thousand years all nations have believed that from the dead a 'visitant' at intervals appears."

Hume—"A wise man proportions his belief to the evidence."

"SHELL 43"

A Cyclone of Spectacular Sensationalism

Through it runs a story of such poignant interest that the spectator is transferred from the hum drum life to the thrilling, pulsating, gripping events happening over there.

"Shell 43" is a unique narrative of cunning in the European war.
It concerns the adventures of a young man of mystery who possesses papers which prove him to be the correspondent of a big American newspaper, others establishing him as a German secret service agent, and still others vouching for his commission as a lieutenant in the English army. The secret of his mission is not divulged until the last tragic scene, when the veil of mystery enshrouding his identity is lifted and he is shown in his true light.

Episode 17, in Two Acts

What do you suppose the "Worm" and the "Bumblebee" were? We'll give you three guesses, and then wager that you won't come anywhere near hitting it. Well, to save you the trouble, we'll tell you. They were two mines, situated near of Green Water. One was alive and working overtime; the other wasn't. Then Duke Farley went away, and while he was gone his partner was swindled out of the good one by a band of clever crooks. But the girl of the photograph was kidnapped, and Duke went to the dock to give up the ransom money demanded for her return. Then he and the rest of the boys were shanghaied. How they escaped and went back, to find that the "Worm" had turned, makes a most interesting and exciting story. Neat Hart is the star.
