

Blue Serge Suits Ready to Wear.

Buying a Serge Suit from Tom, Dick or Harry is just about like buying a lottery ticket—you may get a prize and you may not. It's a pretty hard thing to tell much about a Serge from its looks. The Serge that we have been selling for nearly two years at $13 is made by one mill—and this mill has the reputation of making good Serges. They don't shrink, they don't get shabby, they don't fade.

Other qualities at $15.00 to $18.50. Serges that you can depend upon.

THE WRECKED ALLAN LINER.

HALIFAX, N. S., June 17.—A special despatch from St. John's, Nfld., says: The cruiser Columbus and the str. Home and Regulus today made an attempt to tow the wrecked Allan steamer Norwegian from her position at Larkin's Point. They succeeded in getting her off and towing her for a distance of a quarter of a mile when the towing rope between the steamers parted. As soon as the ropes are again secured the Norwegian will be towed off. This is expected to take place tonight. All the available pumps are working. It is understood the Norwegian's owners have ordered that the steamer be towed to Halifax, but there are grave doubts of the safety of the venture to tow the steamer so far away from land and the general opinion in St. John's is that it would be better to lodge the steamer along from harbor to harbor, along the Newfoundland coast and to dry dock at St. John's.

MRS. WALTER HARTHOPE, BROOKLYN, N. S.

She says: "I suffered for three years with terrible headaches and rushing of blood to my head. I lost my appetite and became very thin and weak. I tried many different remedies and consulted doctors, but all in vain until I started to use Burdock Blood Bitters. I had not taken more than two bottles when I began to feel better, my appetite improved wonderfully and I increased rapidly in weight. I took altogether four bottles and am now as well as can be, for which I owe my thanks to Burdock Blood Bitters. I can recommend it to all those suffering as I did."

NOW FOR THE EORERS.

Rothsasy List Libel Suit May Show a Clue to the Criminals.

The libel suit of C. J. Milligan, manager of the Telegraph, against Jas. H. Crockett, editor of the Fredericton Gleaner, was commenced in the circuit court yesterday afternoon, his honor, Mr. Justice McLeod, presiding. Hon. H. A. McKeown, K. C., appeared for the plaintiff, Gen. W. Allen, K. C., attorney for the defendant, was not able to attend on account of being engaged in court work in Fredericton. Accordingly W. B. Wallace, K. C., conducted the defendant's case during the afternoon. J. H. Crockett, the defendant, and his brother, O. S. Crockett, barrister-at-law, arrived in the city last night to be in court this morning.

After the jury was empaneled Mr. McKeown briefly outlined the case and read the declaration, which sets forth the grounds on which the action was brought. The declaration, in substance, is as follows:

Charles J. Milligan and Harrison A. McKeown, his attorney, sue Jas. H. Crockett for that he, the said defendant, at Fredericton, in the county of York, to wit, at the city of Saint John, in the city and county of Saint John, hereinafter, to wit, on the fifth day of July, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and two, falsely and maliciously published of the plaintiff in a newspaper called the Daily Gleaner, as and purporting to be a letter written to the editor of the Daily Gleaner by some person to plaintiff unknown, and signed "Sunlight in the Fog," the words following, that is to say:

"To the Editor of the Daily Gleaner:

"Dear Sir—Don't you think you are a little hard on my friend, the self-assured Right Hon. Sir Jimmie Milligan? (meaning thereby the plaintiff), 'of the inimitable Daily Telegraph?' When you call to mind the part he (meaning the plaintiff) 'played in the forgery of the Rotheasy electoral lists' (meaning the list of persons entitled to vote in the parish of Rotheasy, in the county of Kings, for the election of members to represent the said county of Kings in the general assembly of the province of New Brunswick), 'one of the most dastardly crimes ever perpetrated in the province of New Brunswick, you should see the debt of obligation which he is under and which he ever will be under to the deaf and dumb' unless the matter is taken to the courts. Is it any wonder, then, that he should feel himself constrained to come to the defence of those people, whom he, in the kindness and frankness of his heart, believes to have been outraged, and more particularly when he has at his side that great patriot and gifted scholar of the English language, the Right Hon. Sir McIntyre, not to speak of the venerable and high minded Mr. J. Harvey Brown?"

"You have the faculty, Mr. Editor, of criticizing in a way that influences in a manner that carries conviction, 'but you should not forget that the 'Right Hon. Sir Jimmie Milligan' (meaning the plaintiff) and his co-adjutors, 'have ample reason to be friends of the deaf and dumb. You say that 'somebody has said that the state 'will pay the expenses connected with 'the prosecution. This means that the 'people of the province will be taxed 'for Sir Jimmie's (meaning the plaintiff's) time, the time of others, and 'the expenses that he and J. Harvey Brown have incurred. Why shouldn't 'the people pay all these bills? The 'people have lots of money, and as 'long as Sir Jimmie (meaning the plaintiff) holds his interests in his hands and directs their affairs as he 'does with phenomenal energy, why 'should they not pay just what he 'directs'?"

"You don't seem to appreciate the 'value of the services of our great 'friend down here by the sea. Your 'paper talks about the King and 'Salisbury, and Roosevelt, and a number 'of the other sovereigns and dignitaries in the highest terms, and in 'terms which they will not overlook 'but why should you be so unkindful 'of the great services which Sir Jimmie 'Milligan (meaning the plaintiff) has 'rendered to this country through the 'aid of the deaf and dumb?"

"I say Mr. Editor, if Sir Jimmie Milligan (meaning the plaintiff) should 'fall in his defence he might threaten 'the state, and then we are brought 'face to face with an exceedingly serious crisis."

Very truly yours,

SUNLIGHT IN THE FOG."

St. John, N. B., July 4th, 1902.

Meaning by the statement in said letter "when you call to mind the part he played in the forgery of the Rotheasy electoral list" that the plaintiff had been party to a forgery of the preparation of the list of persons entitled to vote in the parish of Rotheasy in the county of Kings for the election of members to represent the said county of Kings in the general assembly of the province of New Brunswick.

And also for that the said defendant at Fredericton, etc., etc., on the fifth day of July, 1902, falsely and maliciously published in the Daily Gleaner the said letter, meaning by the statement in it, "but you should not forget that the Right Hon. Sir Jimmie Milligan and his co-adjutors have ample reason to be friends of the 'deaf and dumb,' "that the plaintiff was guilty of wrong doing and that by reason of being so guilty of wrongdoing had ample reason to be friends of those who refuse to reveal the wrongdoings of plaintiff. And the plaintiff claims one thousand dollars.

The defendant says that he is not guilty, and that the defamatory matter referred to in the declaration is true in substance and fact. He further states that the plaintiff (Mr. Milligan) knew of and was a party to certain names being unlawfully, falsely and fraudulently placed upon and added to the Rotheasy voters' list, and that the words referred to in the first part of the declaration were published solely in reference to the plaintiff having such knowledge and being a party to the placing of such names upon the said list and their addition thereto.

Mrs. C. M. Curry of Woodstock, was the first witness called by the plaintiff. Her evidence was as to who was editor and manager of the Gleaner and also as to the date on which the alleged libel was published.

Court adjourned until ten o'clock this morning when it is to be continued.

Sunshine Furnace

Proprietor—"Well Tom, how did that new furnace work this winter—save any coal?"

Janitor—"Yes, sir! put in two tons less than last winter and have about half a ton left—guess it paid you to throw out that old coal-eater and put in this up-to-date SUNSHINE."

Proprietor—"Yes, I think so; and I noticed the smoke (was comfortable in all kinds of weather. Easy to take care of?"

Janitor—"Yes, sir! just had to attend it twice in the winter had any trouble with the fire going out, and didn't have to spend half my time sweeping, cleaning, shaking, dumping ashes, and all that sort of thing—wish all my customers had SUNSHINES."

In the end you pay more for fuel than the furnace in which you burn it—a furnace that saves fuel saves its cost.

Burns coal, coke or wood. Catalogue free.

JUST LIKE A STORY BOOK.

Is Iowa Professor Austrian Crown Prince, Thought to be Dead?

MARINETTE, Wis., June 16.—The Marquette Star, an authority for a story to the effect that Prof. Hoffman, who recently resigned from the faculty of the University of Iowa, is Crown Prince Rudolph of Austria, who was supposed to have killed himself 15 years ago. Hoffman's resignation from the university was requested because he refused to reveal his identity, after admitting that he was going under an assumed name. At the time that it was reported the Crown Prince had killed himself in Austria, it is asserted that a corpse resembling him was made use of at the funeral, while the Prince disappeared from the scene. Hoffman, professor of medicine, the Crown Prince was considered one of the leading physicians of Austria. The story in part is confirmed by circumstances in connection with Hoffman's stay here.

A POWERFUL VOICE.

(From the New York Times).
Colonel Prentiss Ingraham, author of a thousand novels, soldier in several wars, and a gentleman of the old Southern school, is lifted from the earth several times a day by a colored elevator conductor, who, like most of his race, is very fond of elaborate language. Recently an artist in the apartment gave a song recital, and the darky heard him sing.

"Well, James," said the colored conductor the next morning, "what did you think of the singing last night?"

"I was assassinated wid it, suh," he replied; "puddickly assassinated suh; she do sing with great fluently."
