CHATHAM, N. B., Oct. 8.—President Hickson of the liberal conservative association of the county of Northumberland, has called a meeting of the party for the 14th at Chatham, and the parish association is to have a meeting here on the 11th. The object of these meetings is to nominate a standard bearer for the party at the coming election. The meetings of both parties take place on the same date.

HAMPTON, N. B., Oct. 8.—The liberal conservative association of Hampton is organizing its forces in the sub-district with great success. This evening a meeting was held in Agricultural hall, which was well attended. Vice President Smith, who is chairman of the sub-district of Hampton Station, presided. A local election of seven, with power to add to their number was elected. Their names are: W. C. Crawford, Rudolph Smith, Captain Percy B. Byles, G. Ira Northrup, John D. Wood, Robert G. Fletchell, Wm. V. Beatty. Addresses were delivered by the chairman, Geo. M. Wilson, Philip Palmer, W. J. Brown, W. C. Crawford, Captain Byles, G. Ira Northrup, and others. The settled purpose of the workers is to roll up a good majority for their candidate on November 8th.

In Lunenburg, C. E. Kaulbach was re-nominated. He has been continuously a member for Lunenburg since 1881.

Hants county will nominate on Monday, and Yarmouth next Saturday. This will place conservative candidates in every county in the province.

TROUBLE IN HANTS.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES
Were Held in Queen Square Methodist Church Yesterday—W. W. Brewer Preached.

Yesterday was the anniversary day of Queen square Methodist church. At both services the congregations were large. Rev. W. W. Brewer of Marysville was the preacher morning and evening. There was special music at both services. At the morning service Miss M. H. Berrie, daughter of Rev. J. C. Berrie of Woodstock, sang "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," by C. L. Feltgott. The solo was greatly enjoyed. The first lesson was taken from the twenty-fourth Psalm. In the evening the choir was ably assisted by Mrs. A. P. Crockett, who also sang a solo. In the morning Mr. Brewer took as his text the words "But the greatest of these is love," 1 Corinthians, 13:13. It had been said that this chapter was a miracle of literature. It contained many great ideas, but great ideas without realization were the shortest way to Christian death. He would call the three virtues, commonly known as grace, the three great Christian virtues, for they were de-fined by being associated with the graces, either according to the old idea or the present one. They certainly were not like the sportive Greek graces. What St. Paul meant was that these three things were immortal—man's knowledge of God, the soul's intuition of future life, and man's love for man. Paul said that these three would abide but not the greatest was love. To Paul love was the fulfilling of the law. He placed love above everything. To the Jew and Greek this must have appeared the babbling of a madman, for with one sweep he swept aside all their ideas. St. Paul certainly did not minimize other virtues, but it was plain that he meant that without love everything else was of no avail. A man might go to church as often as he pleased, but without love it was all useless. Love was patient and would bear with the failings of others. The man who envied a fellow man doing a better business had not love. While firm in her own ideas, love never forgets others also opinions. Love always had a helping hand for those who needed it. It must be remembered that a church must either be a loving brotherhood or a hive of hypocrisy.

that was accomplished, so that it should not be hard to wipe out Russell's majority of 16. W. M. Christie came within three ballots of getting the nomination, and as he has been thirty years a liberal and Dr. Black only for four, Christie's friends are not at all pleased.

The temperance element in the convention were not satisfied with either name, and they brought forward McHaffy as their man, but Dr. Black's friends were able to get him to decline, so that there is discontent all round.

GIBSON IN YORK.
FREDERICTON, Oct. 8.—The liberal convention held here yesterday afternoon was one of the poorest both in point of attendance and enthusiasm of course adopted, and Alex. Gibson, who is chairman of the sub-district of the county. Though it was market day and a larger number of farmers were in the city than usual, they did not to any extent attend the assembling of the faithful. There were by actual count in the hall 18 persons present, and this number was made up chiefly by office holders and Mr. Gibson's Nashua friends. The great majority of the parties in the county were unrepresented, a thing, perhaps, unprecedented in a political convention. Leading citizens of Fredericton, with a few exceptions, failed to put in an appearance. Not half a dozen merchants presented themselves and dozens of prominent men who attended former conventions were noted for their absence.

Arthur Thompson acted as chairman and made one of his characteristic addresses.

It was probably owing to the bad showing made from different sections of the county that led to the nomination in open meeting. That was the course adopted, and Alex. Gibson, who was nominated by Mr. Campbell, M. P., seconded by Mr. Kilburn. This met with unanimous approval, and Mr. Gibson accepted in a brief speech, saying among other things that he felt sure that the new railway and not through the woods and hills of the interior of the province. He did not believe in any scheme in this election. The convention concluded with brief speeches from Mr. Allen, Mr. Phinney and Dr. Moore.

Each strove hard to out-do the other in sounding Mr. Gibson's praises. Mr. Allen thought, like the others, that the Liberal scheme was great, and said at the coming elections the liberals would redeem two constituencies now held by conservatives. He did not name the two.

Mr. Phinney was sanguine that the liberals would win in the dominion, but was not bold enough to claim Ontario. He considered Mr. Gibson, if not a talker, was a worker.

Dr. Moore spoke in his usual manner. With cheers for the King and the candidate the gathering dispersed. The liberals of York will have to make up if they expect to be in the fight at the finish. The opening of the campaign is not very promising.

QUESTION OF DIVORCE.

Report By Bishop Doane of Albany.

Other Speakers Tell of the Wide Spread Evils of Divorce—Grave Dangers Ahead.

BOSTON, Oct. 8.—Great crowds went to Trinity church today to hear the Archbishop of Canterbury preach, and to the Church of the Advent, where a mass meeting in the interest of upholding the sanctity of the marriage bond was addressed by several well known leaders in the Episcopal church. At both places the crowds were so large that the doors had to be closed some time before the opening of the services. At Trinity many of the delegates attending the general convention were admitted through a private entrance and furnished with seats which had been reserved for them. It is expected that the Archbishop of Canterbury will leave Boston on Thursday next for New York, from which port he will sail for home.

At the Church of the Advent this afternoon, Rev. William Croswell Doane, D. D., Bishop of Albany, delivered an address and introduced the speakers who followed.

Bishop Doane is chairman of the inter-denominational committee of churches which is endeavoring to secure conformity regarding the laws of the Episcopal convention. In his address the Bishop of Albany said he thought the time had arrived when his own church should take the question concerning re-marriage.

Bishop Doane quoted from the marriage ritual of the prayer book to show that nothing but death should sever those who have been united in holy matrimony. He thought it was time the canon of the church agreed with the prayer book.

Rev. David H. Greer, Bishop of New York, said it was not only the duty of society but of the officers of the Christian church to preserve the sanctity of the home and keep pure and inviolate. Dr. Greer also advocated bringing the canon on marriage into harmony with the teaching of the Bible.

Dr. W. W. Webb of Nashotah, Wis., told of the widespread evils of divorce. He said that in his own country he was not wanting that people were realizing that the divorce evil must be checked. Some of the states have passed laws which within the past few years, but there was still need of general reform.

The last speaker, Chief Justice J. H. H. of the Supreme Court of the United States, said that if a man abuses his wife there is no reason why she should not have a separation. Many of the states have separation laws. But it is not this phase of the question that is bringing disrepute upon the country. It is the fact that one in fifty was an application for separate maintenance, but nearly all cases of domestic violence were not reported. Many of them were brought so that the applicants could marry again. The chief justice laid emphasis upon the danger which was confronting the coming generations as a result of the present-day system of divorce.

The pulpits of the Episcopal churches in eastern Massachusetts were filled today by the bishops and other leading preachers.
